"Before going to sleep, briefly examine your conscience on what you have done, said and thought that day. Humbly ask His Divine Majesty for pardon of every offense and defect you find in yourself, firmly resolving, with God's help to guard yourself from them and to confess them."

"Antes de irte a dormir, examina brevemente tu conciencia sobre lo que has hecho, dicho y pensado ese día. Pide humildemente a Su Divina Majestad el perdón de cada ofensa y defecto que encuentres en ti mismo, resolviendo firmemente, con la ayuda de Dios, protegerte de ellos y confesarlos."

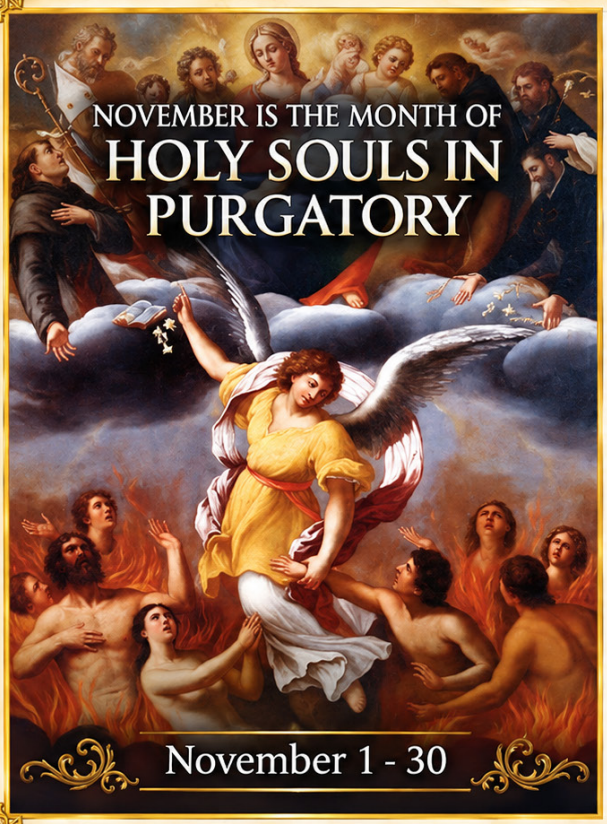
San Carlos, ¡ruega por nosotros!



November 2nd, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, dovetails with November 1st, the feast of All Saints. The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death. This growth and development occurs in a state of being that we have traditionally called purgatory.

These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

The Knights of Columbus have continued their Pilgrim Icon Program. The icon is centered on the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The icon depicts the most famous image of the Sacred Heart painted in 1767 by Pompeo Batoni. It currently is venerated in the Church of the Gesu in Rome. The reproduction bears the blessing of Pope Francis and is one of more than 300 icons traveling across the world for veneration.

Sponsored by our Knights of Columbus Council 5399, the icon will be displayed in the Church from Tuesday, October 27 – Monday, November 2.

Before voting, Catholics are called to consider a wide range of issues important to the common good, weighing each according to its moral importance. Here are some points to think about.

FAITH AND POLITICS

In the days leading up to the election, Florida Catholics have a responsibility to consider how they can best serve their communities through election choices and contribute to a climate of civility in the face of divisiveness and disagreement. During the election, and perhaps just as importantly in their daily lives, Catholics are reminded to allow their faith to guide their politics. The principles of faith that govern daily life should also guide political viewpoints, and when necessary, "transform the political party to which we belong."

Prior to casting their ballots, Catholics have the opportunity to ask:

- What does God want me to do? • How will my voting choice help to promote the common good and protect human life and dignity? • How can I speak up about the issues that matter in a respectful way? • Am I being influenced by partisan interests and media commentary such that I neglect to remember the teachings of the Church and the individual lives affected by public policies?
  Following in the footsteps of Jesus, it is the lifelong responsibility for Catholics "to do good and oppose evil," including in election choices.
- To distinguish between right and wrong, people of faith turn to their conscience: a tool that relies on the "judgment of reason" and Scripture to offer guidance for decision making.
- Each Catholic is called to develop a "well-formed" conscience, internalizing their faith and the Word of God so they can apply it to real-life situations daily.

Saints of the Week

FEAST OF ST. CHARLES BORROMEO ✝ NOVEMBER 4TH

Our patron saint, Saint Charles Borromeo gives us much to be proud of. St. Charles Borromeo (1538-1584) came from a wealthy and influential family, but gradually embraced a life of simplicity and service. He was disciplined, serious, hardworking, and deeply committed to his responsibilities. He expected much of himself and encouraged others to live faithfully. St. Charles made prayer, the Eucharist, and spiritual reflection central to his daily routine.

He gave generously to the poor and adopted a modest lifestyle despite his high rank and access to wealth. St. Charles valued education and believed that priests needed strong intellectual and spiritual preparation to guide their communities.

In the 1500's, a terrible plague devastated Milan, Italy. St. Charles personally visited plague victims and organized relief efforts, putting the needs of others ahead of his own safety. He practiced fasting and penance as part of his spiritual discipline, although his demanding lifestyle eventually took a toll on his health.

Despite his noble birth and influential position, he believed that Church leadership required service, sacrifice, and personal holiness.

St. Charles Borromeo lived by the motto "Humilitas," meaning "Humility." His life demonstrated that faith should be expressed through prayer, education, responsible leadership, and practical care for others.

He is the patron saint of Bishops, catechists, and seminarians.

Saint Martin de Porres was a Peruvian Dominican lay friar known for his charity, nursing of the sick, and work for social justice, particularly among the poor and marginalized. St. Martin de Porres is canonized as the first Black Saint of the Americas and his life continues to inspire people to work for social justice.

The witness of the saints, deeply rooted in the concrete realities of their times, reminds us of the renewing and transforming power of Easter. They show us that history is shaped by faith.
