In the Womb with Jesus
Week 32

Jesus has gotten so big that He is now quite stuck with his Head facing downward. This is not uncomfortable for Him, though. It's also a good thing, since it is the position He will need to be in when He is delivered in a few weeks!

Jesus of the Womb, hear our prayers!

"Take care to hear the Mass in its entirety."

St. Charles Borromeo
(1538-1584)
St. Charles, pray for us!

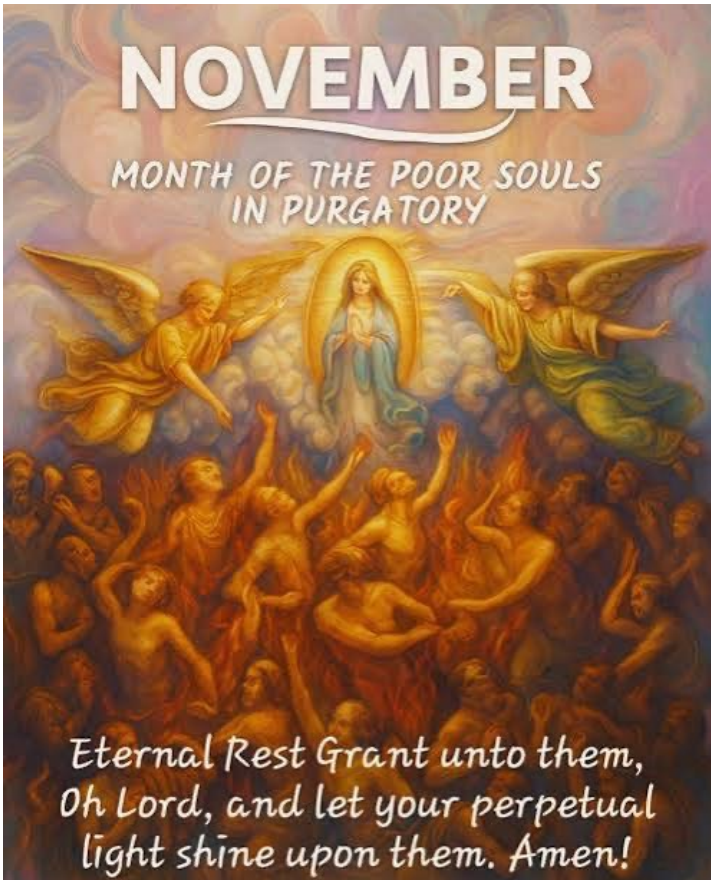

"Procura escuchar la Misa en su totalidad."

San Carlos Borromeo

San Carlos, ¡ruega por nosotros!

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE LEAVING ON THEIR PILGRIMAGE TO ITALY

God, our heavenly Father, whose glory fills the whole of creation, and whose presence we find wherever we go, bless those from our parish who are travelling on a pilgrimage. Surround them with Your loving care. Protect them from every danger. Help them to keep their eyes fixed on Your Son, Jesus, that whatever they encounter they may always seek to glorify You for Your super abundant Mercy and Kindness. And bring them safely home to their journey's end. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR ALL VETERANS

Loving God, we ask for blessings on all those who have served their country in the armed forces. We ask for healing for the Veterans who have been wounded, in body and soul, in conflicts around the globe. We pray especially for the young men and women, in the thousands, who are coming home with injured bodies and traumatized spirits. Bring solace to them, O Lord; may we pray for them when they cannot pray. We ask for, echoing John Paul II, an end to wars and the dawning of a new era of peace, as a way to honor all the veterans of past wars.

Have mercy on all our Veterans. Bring peace to their hearts and peace to the regions they fought in. Bless all the soldiers who served in non-combative posts; May their calling to service continue in their lives in many positive ways.

Give us all the creative vision to see a world which, grown weary with fighting, moves to affirming the life of every human being and so moves beyond war. Hear our prayer, O Prince of Peace, hear our prayer. Amen.

The first mission of the Church is to help people be attentive to the profound questions of life: those concerning our origin and our destiny, as well as those concerning the meaning of love and suffering. The logic of profit at all costs and the manipulation of information risk exerting undue pressure on people to conform to a lifestyle centered on the consumption of material goods, but our hearts are made to look upwards. Pope Leo XIV [@Pontifex] X

CATECHETICAL CORNER

The Mass Explained - Concluding Rites

The Concluding Rites are the final short sequence of the Mass that sends the congregation out to live the Gospel.

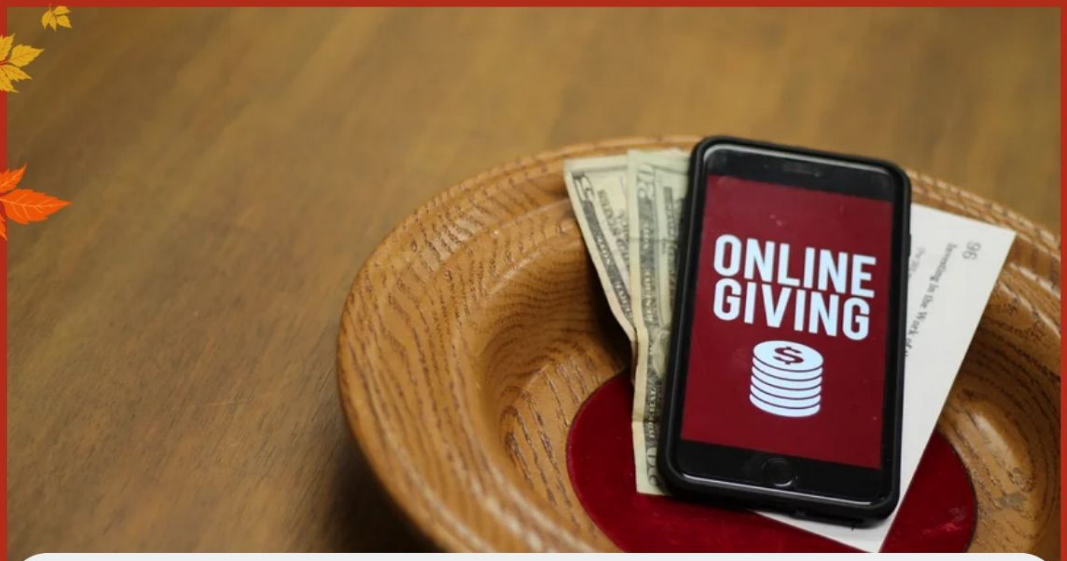

Final Blessing. On the way into church we blessed ourselves with the Sign of the Cross. Before the Gospel we blessed our mind, our lips, and our heart. Now we receive a blessing. Sometimes, the blessing is very simple. On special days, the blessing may be more extensive. In every case, the blessing is always trinitarian: "May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit." It is in the triune God and in the sign of the cross that we find our blessing.

The Dismissal. The priest or deacon then dismisses the assembly: "Go in peace." And we give our liturgical "yes" by saying, "Thanks be to God." In fact, the dismissal gives the liturgy its name. The word "Mass" comes from the Latin word, "Missa." At one time, the people were dismissed with the words "Ite, missa est" (literally meaning "Go, you are sent"). The word "Missa" is related to the word "missio," the root of the English word "mission." The liturgy does not simply come to an end. Those assembled are sent forth to bring the fruits of the Eucharist to the world.

Engage: In this final moment of the Mass we are being sent on a mission to light up the ways of this world with the love of Christ, a love that is willing to sacrifice for others, a love that knows no limits. As you leave Church and return to the world, consider how you might live out your Christian mission this week.
