There are no strangers here, just friends we have not met!

“On a beautiful sunny day, think how much seeing the eternal light will delight you, since this light causes such joy. On a dark and cloudy day, think how much pain there would be if you were in that eternal darkness, since you were so saddened by just a little bad weather.”

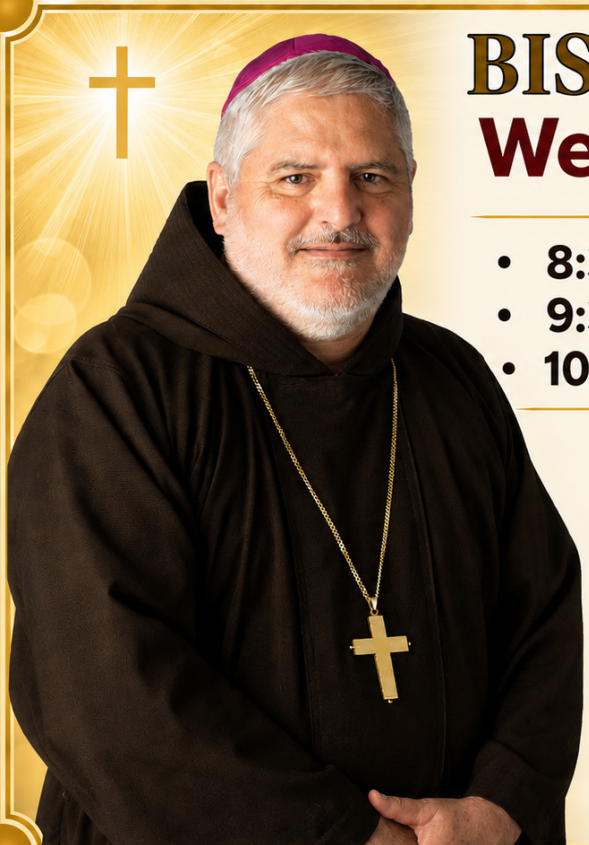

“En un hermoso día soleado, piensa en cuánto te alegrará contemplar la luz eterna, pues esta luz produce tanta alegría. En un día oscuro y nublado, piensa en cuánto dolor sentirías si estuvieras en esa oscuridad eterna, puesto que te entristece tanto un poco de mal tiempo.”

St John Eudes

Feast Day
August 19

Saint John Eudes

(1601 – 1680) was a French Catholic priest recognized by Pope Pius X as the “father, doctor, and apostle of liturgical devotion to the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.” Canonized in 1925, he spent 50 years preaching parish missions and famously lived in a giant cider barrel in a field to avoid infecting colleagues while ministering to plague victims.

St. Bernard

Feast Day: August 20

Pray for Us

@cathapostlectr

Saint Bernard of Clairvaux

had to be Western Europe’s “man of the twelfth century” without doubt or controversy. He was an adviser of Popes, preacher of the Second Crusade, defender of the faith, healer of a schism, reformer of a monastic order, Scripture scholar, theologian, and eloquent preacher. His life was characterized by a deep devotion to the Blessed Mother. His sermons and books about Mary are still the standard of Marian theology.

St. Pius X

Feast Day: August 21

Pray for Us

@cathapostlectr

is perhaps best remembered for his encouragement of the frequent reception of Holy Communion, especially by children. He officially lowered the age from 12-14 back to the “age of reason” about seven years old in his 1910 decree.

One of his first papal acts was to end the supposed right of governments to interfere by veto in papal elections. In 1905, when France renounced its agreement with the Holy See and threatened confiscation of Church property if governmental control of Church affairs were not granted, Pius X courageously rejected the demand.

Memorare to Our Lady, Mother of Catholic Schools

Remember, O Most Gracious Virgin Mary, that you have been given to us by your Son to be our mother.

Through your maternal intercession support and aid our Catholic schools.

We entrust to you our Catholic schools; bless them.

We commend to you our students and teachers; enlighten them.

We commit to your protection our families; guard them.

Never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided.

Inspired with this confidence, assist those who come to you for guidance as they decide to send their children to a Catholic school; grant them clarity of vision.

Full of confidence in our power before God, we place our Catholic schools in your providential care.

Amen.

An Opportunity to Volunteer for the School Safety Team

We are in need of men and women to serve on our school's volunteer Safety Team. We especially value veterans, retired police, and firefighters, but it is not required to serve.

The job of the Safety team is to provide our paid security officers with another set of eyes primarily through the monitoring of our video cameras.

If you can give one day a week in service to the protection of our students, teachers, and staff, we would be very grateful.

Thank you!

CATHOLIC VIRTUES

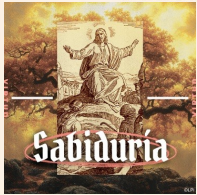

It may seem unfair, at first, to say that wisdom is a virtue — after all, doesn't everyone know one or two people who seem incapable of wisdom?

Well, that depends on what we actually mean when we talk about "wisdom." Wisdom is more than being smart. They say that wisdom comes with experience, and it does — but only if you accept it.

Wisdom, St. Thomas Aquinas wrote, is a gift of the Holy Spirit born of charity and originating in the human will. But it is also connected to the intellect, because the intellect is where we discern between right and wrong based on all we have been taught and all we have experienced. Therefore, we must ask the Holy Spirit for wisdom, and we must make ourselves ready to receive it — remembering always that we cannot recognize it alone.

VIRTUDES CATÓLICAS

Puede parecer injusto, al principio, decir que la sabiduría es una virtud; al fin y al cabo, ¿quién no conoce a alguien que parece incapaz de ser sabio?

Bueno, eso depende de lo que entendamos por «sabiduría». La sabiduría es más que ser inteligente. Se dice que la sabiduría viene con la experiencia, y así es, pero solo si la aceptamos. Santo Tomás de Aquino escribió que la sabiduría es un don del Espíritu Santo, nacido de la caridad y originado en la voluntad humana. Pero también está conectada con el intelecto, porque es allí donde discernimos entre el bien y el mal basándonos en todo lo que hemos aprendido y experimentado. Por lo tanto, debemos pedir sabiduría al Espíritu Santo y prepararnos para recibirla, recordando siempre que no podemos reconocerla por nosotros mismos.

Let us continue to pray for peace, so that wars throughout the world may cease and diplomatic solutions to conflicts may be found. Let us remember all the victims of hostilities, especially the weakest and most defenceless: children, the elderly and the sick. May the Lord comfort those who suffer and bless the work of those who bring aid and consolation. Pope Leo XIV [@Pontifex] X
