ST. CHARLES BORROMEO CHURCH

Mission Statement: As St. Charles Borromeo Parishioners, "We are called to act with justice, to love tenderly and to walk humbly with God."
Micah 6:8

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." - Mt 5:10-12a

- Bless each other at bedtime and mention each family member
- Share stories of beloved family members

As we end each day, let us recall these words of Pope St. John Paul II: "The family, more than any other human reality, is the place in which the person is loved for himself and in which he learns to live the sincere gift of self."

For children with incurable diseases:
Let us pray that children suffering from incurable diseases and their families receive the necessary medical care and support, never losing strength and hope.

Saints of the Week

This fourth-century Armenian saint was a bishop and martyr and is venerated as the patron of those who suffer from illnesses of the throat. On his feast day, Catholics traditionally receive a blessing of the throat. During the blessing, the minister takes two candles that were blessed on the feast of the Presentation and makes a cross in front of the throat, saying “Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness.”

The Blessing of the Throat will take place at St. Charles at the 8:30 AM Mass on Tuesday, February 3rd.

Saint Agatha of Sicily (c. 231 – c. 251 AD)

is a revered Christian martyr and one of the most celebrated virgin saints in antiquity. Agatha consecrated her virginity to God at a young age. During the persecution of Christians under Emperor Decius, the Roman prefect Quintianus pursued her. When she rejected his advances and marriage proposal, he subjected her to a series of brutal trials, imprisonment, and torture.

In Nagasaki, Japan, February, 1597, 26 martyrs, all united in a common faith and love for Christ and His Church, were crucified on a hill, now known as the Holy Mountain, overlooking Nagasaki. While hanging upon a cross, St. Paul Miki preached to the people gathered for the execution. “The only reason for my being killed is that I have taught the doctrine of Christ. I thank God it is for this reason I die. After Christ’s example I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as a fruitful rain.” When missionaries returned to Japan in the 1860’s they found thousands of Christians living around Nagasaki secretly preserving the faith.

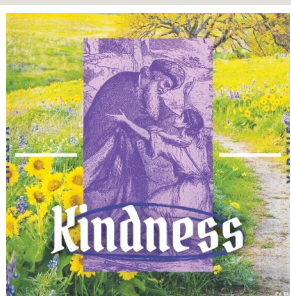

guide your priests to follow her own words, “Do whatever He tells you” (Jn 2:5). May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary’s most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother’s own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen

Catholic Virtues

The quality of “kindness” is often equated with politeness — but real, virtuous kindness is so much more. Virtuous kindness is a way of seeing others through the eyes of God.

God is not polite — God is kind, and His kindness is abundantly evident in all of creation. Also known as benevolence, kindness is a fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22) and is a central theme in the famous parable of the Good Samaritan. In practicing kindness and seeking the good of another without prejudice or condition.

Virtudes católicas

La cualidad de la “bondad” a menudo se equipara con la cortesía, pero la bondad verdadera y virtuosa es mucho más. La bondad virtuosa es una forma de ver a los demás a través de los ojos de Dios.

Dios no es cortés; Dios es bondadoso, y su bondad es evidente en toda la creación. También conocida como benevolencia, la bondad es un fruto del Espíritu Santo (Gálatas 5:22) y es un tema central en la famosa parábola del Buen Samaritano. Practicar la bondad y buscar el bien del otro sin prejuicios ni condiciones.
