There are no strangers here, just friends we have not met!

The Church does not exist for herself, but to lead every person to an encounter with the Lord. It is therefore not enough to ask whether an activity is well organized, well attended, or has been running for many years. We must ask whether it truly leads people to Christ and brings the Gospel into contact with the concrete realities of people's lives. Pope Leo XIV [@Pontifex] X

“Remember that we are continually tempted and surrounded by the demons, always on the ready to make us turn traitor; nevertheless, stay on top of the situation.”

“Recuerden que estamos continuamente tentados y rodeados de demonios, siempre listos para hacernos traicionar; sin embargo, manténganse al tanto de la situación.”

OCTOBER MONTH OF THE Holy Rosary

The Rosary is traditionally attributed to a Marian vision received by St. Dominic de Guzman (1170-1221). Though scholarship on this point is uncertain, the Dominican Order was undoubtedly crucial in establishing and evangelizing the Rosary as a devotional prayer.

Over the centuries, the formula of the devotion eventually took the shape of 50 Hail Marys divided into five “decades,” with each decade focused on a different mystery. The Church has defined the Joyful Mysteries (to be recited on Saturdays and Mondays), the Glorious Mysteries (Sundays and Wednesdays), the Sorrowful Mysteries (Tuesdays and Fridays), and most recently the Luminous Mysteries (to be recited on Thursdays).

OCTUBRE MES DEL Santo Rosario

Tradicionalmente, el Rosario se atribuye a una visión mariana recibida por Santo Domingo de Guzmán (1170-1221). Si bien la investigación académica al respecto es incierta, la Orden Dominicana fue sin duda fundamental para el establecimiento y la evangelización del Rosario como oración devocional.

A lo largo de los siglos, la fórmula de esta devoción evolucionó hasta conformar cincuenta Ave Marías divididas en cinco “decenas,” cada una dedicada a un misterio diferente.

La Iglesia ha definido los Misterios Gozosos (que se rezan los sábados y lunes), los Misterios Gloriosos (domingos y miércoles), los Misterios Dolorosos (martes y viernes) y, más recientemente, los Misterios Luminosos (que se rezan los jueves).

Each Wednesday during the month of October, we will pray the Holy Rosary at 6:30 PM in the Church.

The Glorious Mysteries are prayed on Sundays and Wednesdays.

FIRST GLORIOUS MYSTERY THE RESURRECTION

“You need not be amazed! You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, the one who was crucified. He has been raised up; He is not here. See the place where they laid Him.”

FRUIT OF THE MYSTERY: FAITH

SECOND GLORIOUS MYSTERY THE ASCENSION

FRUIT OF THE MYSTERY: GRACE OF A HAPPY DEATH

2026 CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL

*“Tell them to do good...
be generous, ready to share.”*

— 1 Timothy 6:18

A Gift of Life

“We do not pretend that life is all beauty. We are aware of darkness and sin, of poverty and pain. But we know Jesus has conquered sin and passed through His own pain to the glory of the Resurrection. We are not looking for a shallow joy but rather a joy that comes from faith, that grows through unselfish love, that respects the ‘fundamental duty of love of neighbor, without which it would be unbecoming to speak of Joy.’” (Pope John Paul II, Australia, 1986)

That special Joy that comes from sharing through love of neighbor, is our gift to the Catholic Faith Appeal. By supporting the CFA, we support the work of our Respect Life Office whose mission is to provide hope and inspiration in the proclamation that ALL human life is sacred.

We are a people of Life! As Catholics, we proclaim that all human life is due our respect, from the moment of conception till natural death, regardless of age or condition, including people with disabilities and our elderly. Our Respect Life Office is a great source of current and relevant information on the Life issues.

Please join the other generous people in our Parish family who have already made a gift to the 2026 CFA. Your gift will bring much needed hope and joy to those whose lives are transformed by the programs and ministries funded by the CFA.

Since 1973 — the year in which the Supreme Court rulings in Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton legalized abortion nationwide — the Catholic Church in the U.S. has designated October as Respect Life Month, with the first Sunday of October as Respect Life Sunday.

Since the first century, the Catholic Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. Catholic teaching also states that “intentional euthanasia, whatever its forms or motives, is murder,” with the Second Vatican Council condemning “euthanasia or willful self-destruction” among the moral “infamies” that “poison human society” and are a “supreme dishonor to the Creator.”

Abortion rates steadily declined since 1990, but have increased slightly in recent years, even after the Supreme Court reversed its Roe and Doe rulings in 2022. In 2024, there were 15.4 abortions per 1,000 women ages 15-44, down 1% from 2023, but still a 7% increase from 2020. Currently, assisted suicide is legal in 11 U.S. states and the District of Columbia, with a number of other states considering legalization.

RESPECT LIFE Month

CHERISH • PROTECT • DEFEND
EVERY HUMAN LIFE

Each October, the Church in the United States observes Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is celebrated as Respect Life Sunday.

On the weekend of October 3 and 4, 2026, parishes throughout the Diocese of Venice will conduct a special collection in support of this vital, life-affirming mission. All funds collected remain within the Diocese and assist the Respect Life Office in sustaining programs such as Walking with Moms in Need, Project Rachel, and Catholic Days at the Capitol.

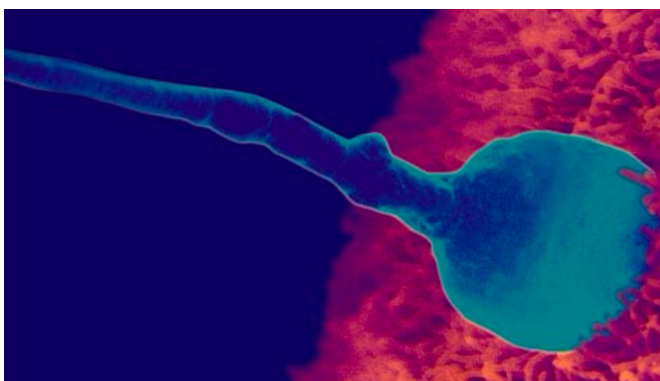

Please place your envelope in the collection basket.

Please continue to pray for a renewed respect for the gift of human life, especially for those who are most vulnerable and whose inherent dignity is often overlooked.

With gratitude and prayerful affection, I am,
Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Mass Explained - Liturgy of the Eucharist, part 1

Overview of the Mass

Key moments in the Mass

Preparation Rites (Setting the Table):

The early Christians brought bread and wine from their homes to the church to be used for the Mass and to be given to the clergy and the poor. Today, a similar offering for the parish and the poor is made with our monetary contributions.

The priest receives bread and wine brought forward by members of the congregation, keeping the spiritual efficacy and significance of the early church offerings.

He then mixes water with the wine and washes his hands. (Mixing water with wine and washing hands are things all Jews did at meals in Jesus' day.)

Finally, he invites us to pray that the sacrifice be acceptable to God. We respond "Amen" to the Prayer Over the Gifts.

Engage: As the gifts are being brought forward and as the priest is preparing the gifts, in your heart bring the different aspects of your life forward and offer them to God. Offer God your marriage, your family, your career, your business, your friendships. In a special way offer him your successes and failures. Hold up to God a friend who is suffering in some way. Offer him a particular struggle that you are enduring. Offer God everything. Mentally and spiritually place them all on the altar so that God can transform them.

Saints of the Week

Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska (August 25, 1905 – October 5, 1938) was a Polish Catholic Religious sister. Her deep spiritual visions and apparitions of Jesus Christ initiated the global Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy, emphasizing God's boundless love and willingness to forgive. In 1931, Jesus appeared to Sister Faustina with red and pale rays radiating from His heart, representing the blood and water poured out at His crucifixion. He instructed her to paint this image with the signature, "Jesus, I trust in You." The original painting was completed in Vilnius under her direct supervision. On April 30, 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized her, making her the first saint canonized in the new millennium.

was a martyr and patron of France and is regarded as the first bishop of Paris. Saint Denis and Companions were sent to Gaul from Rome in the third century and beheaded in the persecution under Emperor Valerius in 258.

According to one of the legends, after he was martyred on Montmartre—literally, "mountain of martyrs"—in Paris, he carried his head to a village northeast of the city. The deep impression the saint made on the people of his day reflected a life of unusual holiness. There are two fundamental facts: A great man gave his life for Christ, and the Church has never forgotten him—a human symbol of God's eternal mindfulness. His feast day is October 9.

FEAST OF SAINT BRUNO

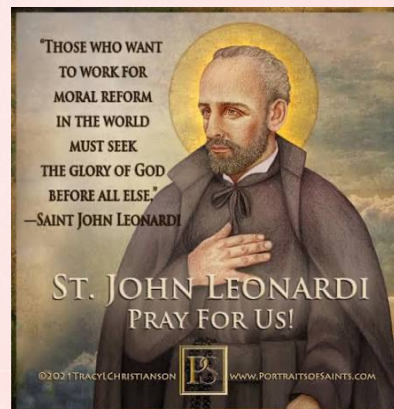

"WHILE THE WORLD CHANGES THE CROSS STANDS FIRM"

Saint Bruno of Cologne (c. 1030 – October 6, 1101) was a highly celebrated German scholar, teacher, and priest who famously founded the Carthusian Order. Renowned for his deep desire for solitude, silence, and prayer, he walked away from immense academic and ecclesiastical power to live a hidden life dedicated entirely to God. Along with six companions, Bruno founded a monastery in a remote region of the French Alps. They embraced a life of poverty, manual work, prayer, and transcribing manuscripts. Saint Bruno is venerated as the patron saint of exorcists and those suffering from demonic possession. His feast day is celebrated on October 6.

Saint John Leonardi

After his ordination, Saint John Leonardi became very active in the works of the ministry, especially in hospitals and prisons. The example and dedication of his work attracted several young laymen who began to assist him. They later became priests themselves. John lived after the Protestant Reformation and the Council of Trent. He and his followers projected a new congregation of diocesan priests. In 1579, Saint John Leonardi formed the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, and published a compendium of Christian doctrine that remained in use until the 19th century. Father Leonardi and his priests became a great power for good in Italy, and their congregation was confirmed by Pope Clement in 1595. His feast day is celebrated on October 9.

CATHOLIC VIRTUES

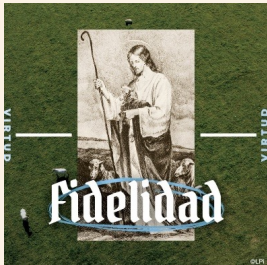

Fidelity is another term for the virtue of faithfulness, which enables us to fulfill our promises. For those who are baptized, this means living in fidelity to the promises of the New Covenant: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments," Christ said (John 15:15).

Everywhere we look in the life of the Church, we see opportunities to practice fidelity. The saints lived in fidelity with God's grace. Spouses live in fidelity to their marriage vows. Priests and religious live in fidelity to their own vows. We must all be faithful to the Magisterium, the teaching authority of the Church represented by the Pope and all bishops faithful to him.

VIRTUDES CATÓLICAS

La fidelidad es otra forma de referirse a la virtud de la fidelidad, que nos permite cumplir nuestras promesas. Para quienes están bautizados, esto significa vivir en fidelidad a las promesas de la Nueva Alianza: «Si me amáis, guardaréis mis mandamientos», dijo Cristo (Juan 15:15).

En toda la vida de la Iglesia encontramos oportunidades para practicar la fidelidad. Los santos vivieron en fidelidad con la gracia de Dios. Los esposos viven en fidelidad a sus votos matrimoniales. Los sacerdotes y religiosos viven en fidelidad a sus propios votos. Todos debemos ser fieles al Magisterio, la autoridad docente de la Iglesia representada por el Papa y todos los obispos fieles a él.
