The Pope's Monthly Prayer Intention

AUGUST 2026

For evangelization in the city
Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

Peace is a responsibility. If our first instinct when we encounter a problem, experience tension or are insulted, is to judge others, accuse and even condemn them, then, inevitably, first indifference and then hatred will grow around us. There is a way of looking at reality that destroys and does not build. Peace instead, begins with me. It begins with us. Pope Leo XIV [@Pontifex] X

The Transfiguration is on August 6th

The Transfiguration takes place right after Jesus reveals to His disciples that He must suffer, be rejected, and be killed. The event was designed to anchor the disciples' faith.

When Jesus' appearance dramatically changes and His clothes become dazzling white, His divine nature is fully manifested. By catching a glimpse of His divine majesty, they would know that His upcoming suffering was not a failure, but a necessary part of God's plan for redemption.

The sudden appearance of Moses (representing the Law) and Elijah (representing the Prophets) shows that Jesus is the culmination of the entire Old Testament story. When Peter offers to build three tents for them, a voice from heaven declares, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!" Matthew 17:5

Saints of the Week

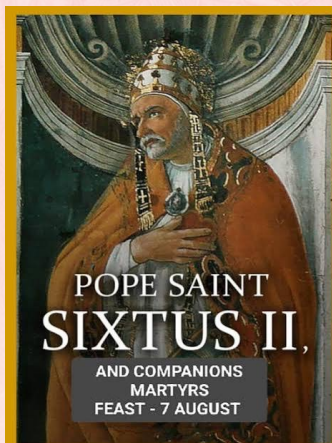

ST. JOHN
MARY VIANNEY

August 4th

Saint John Vianney

(1786–1859), was a French Catholic priest globally revered as the Curé d'Ars ("the parish priest of Ars") and honored by the Catholic Church as the universal patron saint of parish priests. He is celebrated for his immense dedication to the sacrament of confession, his deep humility, and his radical spiritual transformation of his parish in Ars, France. He spent between 12 and 18 hours a day hearing confessions. He possessed a rare mystical gift for reading souls, allowing him to remind penitents of sins they forgot or actively hid. Through rigorous fasting, sleeping only a few hours a night, and preaching simply but passionately, he completely revitalized the town. Taverns closed down, and the community shifted away from vices like swearing and working on Sundays. He was canonized a saint in 1925 by Pope Pius XI, who later declared him the patron heavenly protector of all parish priests. His heart remains entirely intact and incorrupt, preserved for over 150 years as a relic representing his burning love for God. In November 2018, Vianney's heart was transported to the United States for a 6-month nationwide tour visiting 28 churches in several states.

Pope Saint Sixtus II

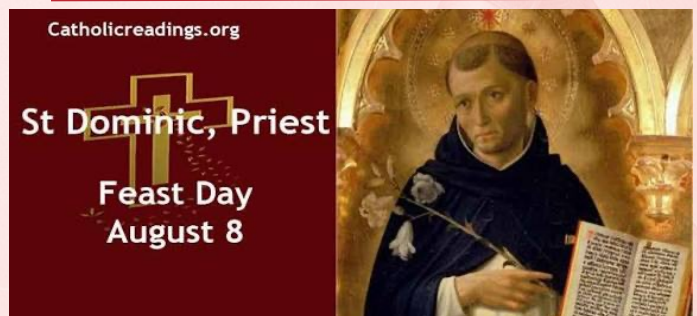

and his deacons were Christian martyrs beheaded on August 6, 258 AD, during the harsh persecutions of Emperor Valerian. Pope Saint Sixtus II was made a saint immediately upon his death on August 6, 258 AD, through the ancient tradition of early Christian martyrdom. In the early Church, those who died for the faith (martyrs) were recognized as saints right away without a formal canonization process.

Saint Mary Major

is the largest church in the world honoring God through Mary. Santa Maria Maggiore is one of the four main Basilicas in Rome. Within the Basilica, under the main altar, is the church's most sacred relic, the wood of the manger in which the baby Jesus was laid. Another important relic is the Salus Populi Romani, an icon of the Blessed Virgin Mary. According to legend, this ancient icon is the first icon to be painted of Mary and was painted by Saint Luke, the Gospel writer. In 358 AD there was a summer snowfall on Rome's Esquiline Hill. The Virgin Mary appeared asking for a church where the snow fell. This led directly to building the Basilica. Since the 4th century there has been a feast day dedicated to the miracle of the snowfall. Starting in 1983, there has been an annual August 5 celebration recreating a miraculous snowstorm with white flower petals, live music, and light shows at the Basilica di Santa Maria Maggiore.

Saint Dominic

was a 13th-century Castilian priest who famously founded the Dominicans. He dedicated his life to religious scholarship, combating heresies through peaceful debate, and living a life of voluntary poverty. Authorized by Pope Honorius III in 1216, the order revolutionized monastic traditions by sending highly educated friars out into urban areas to preach and teach rather than keeping them enclosed in isolated monasteries. According to pious Catholic tradition, Saint Dominic is credited with receiving, spreading, and popularizing the devotion of the Rosary.

CATHOLIC VIRTUES

Respect means a feeling of admiration for someone's good qualities or achievements. This is also how we understand respect in terms of Catholic virtue. The Catechism tells us that "man must...respect the particular goodness of every creature" in God's world. So what are the admirable qualities shared by each and every creature? There is only one, and it's quite simple: the Creator himself. Respect for those made in God's image flows from our primary respect for God himself. Because of this, it is particularly important that we, as Christians, show respect for those segments of society that only we will recognize as being sacred: the unborn, the elderly, the poor, the stranger. If we do not respect them, who will?

VIRTUDES CATÓLICAS

El respeto significa admiración por las buenas cualidades o los logros de alguien. Así entendemos el respeto en el contexto de la virtud católica. El Catecismo nos dice que «el hombre debe... respetar la bondad particular de cada criatura» en el mundo de Dios. ¿Cuáles son, entonces, las cualidades admirables que comparten todas y cada una de las criaturas? Solo hay una, y es muy sencilla: el Creador mismo.

El respeto por quienes fueron creados a imagen de Dios emana de nuestro respeto primordial hacia Dios mismo. Por ello, es particularmente importante que, como cristianos, mostremos respeto por aquellos sectores de la sociedad que solo nosotros reconocemos como sagrados: los no nacidos, los ancianos, los pobres, los extranjeros. Si no los respetamos nosotros, ¿quién lo hará?
