*"Tell them to do good...
be generous, ready to share."*
— 1 Timothy 6:18

Televised Mass For All

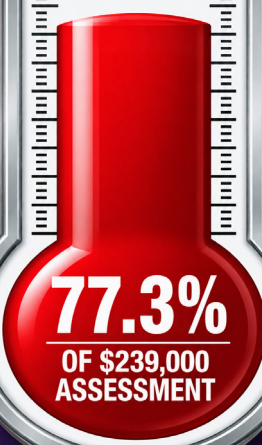

To reach as many of the faithful as possible, the Diocese of Venice Department of Communications televises Sunday Catholic Masses that are hosted at various Parishes across the Diocese of Venice.

This televised Mass allows the homebound, elderly, hospitalized, incarcerated, and those unable to attend Mass at a local Parish, the opportunity to view and pray along with the Mass.

An Opportunity to Volunteer for the School Safety Team

We are in need of men and women to serve on our school's volunteer Safety Team. We especially value veterans, retired police, and firefighters, but it is not required to serve.

The job of the Safety team is to provide our paid security officers with another set of eyes primarily through the monitoring of our video cameras.

SAFE SCHOOL STRONG COMMUNITY

If you can give one day a week in service to the protection of our students, teachers, and staff, we would be very grateful.

Thank you!

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ A 25th Anniversary Prayer of Remembrance

Lord God, on this twenty-fifth anniversary of the tragic September 11 attacks, we come before you with heavy yet hopeful hearts.

We remember all who died twenty-five years ago in New York, at the Pentagon, and in the fields of Pennsylvania. Grant them eternal rest and let perpetual light shine upon them.

We hold in our embrace the families, friends, and communities who still carry the grief and wounds of that day. Comfort them with your loving mercy and fill their emptiness with your enduring presence.

Protect our first responders, our military, and all who serve our communities with courage and selflessness. Strengthen our nation and turn our hearts away from hatred and toward compassion, justice, and lasting peace. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bishop Emeritus Frank J. Dewane, as well as other priests from the Diocese, will be giving a Memorial Prayer Service at the Sarasota National Cemetery on September 11th at 5:00 PM.

All are welcome to attend.

Saints of the Week

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Church has celebrated Mary's birth since at least the sixth century. According to early writings (not accepted by the Church as scripture but ones the Church recognizes as historical truths in telling the real-life story of Jesus and His parents) Anna and Joachim are infertile but pray for a child. They receive the promise of a child who will advance God's plan of salvation for the world. Such a story, like many biblical counterparts, stresses the special presence of God in Mary's life from the beginning. Saint Augustine connects Mary's birth with Jesus' saving work. He tells the earth to rejoice and shine forth in the light of her birth. "She is the flower of the field from whom bloomed the precious lily of the valley. Through her birth the nature inherited from our first parents is changed." The opening prayer at Mass speaks of the birth of Mary's Son as the dawn of our salvation, and asks for an increase of peace.

Saint Peter Claver

(1580–1654) was a Spanish Jesuit priest and missionary who dedicated his life to ministering to enslaved African people in Cartagena, Colombia. Known as the "Slave of the Slaves", he is estimated to have personally baptized and provided medical and spiritual aid to over 300,000 enslaved individuals over a 40-year period. He is recognized as a pioneer of human rights and Catholic social teaching, and he was canonized by Pope Leo XIII in 1888.

The Feast of the Holy Name of Mary is a celebration held every year on September 12 to honor the name, life, and intercession of the Mother of Jesus. It falls four days after the Feast of the Birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary (September 8) and mirrors the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus. It thanks God for the gifts given to Mary and asks for her help through prayer. The celebration began in Spain in 1513. The day reminds people of God's goodness and encourages peace.

CATECHETICAL CORNER

The Mass Explained - Liturgy of the Word, part 2

The Liturgy of the Word is the first major part of the Catholic Mass where God speaks to the people through Scripture. It includes biblical readings, a psalm, a homily, the profession of faith, and universal prayers, forming a single act of worship with the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Our Profession of Faith. This is where we proclaim our faith as individuals and as a community. If you really reflect on the Creed I suspect you will have questions or doubts almost every time you say it. Those doubts and questions are invitations to explore and study our faith more, but also to place our trust in God and his Church. Together we have a complete faith.

Engage: Whatever you have questions or doubts about in the Creed, begin to explore them vigorously, one at a time. Examine why the Church teaches what she teaches in each instance and allow your questions and doubts to strengthen your faith rather than diminish it.

General Intercessions. At this point of the Mass we offer specific intentions to God as a community. These usually include a prayer for the Church, a prayer for world leaders, prayers for those who are oppressed and those in need, prayer for the local community, and others.

Engage: Consider whom and what you are praying for. Immerse yourself for a moment in that person's need, responsibilities, or pain.

Sorrow 3 – The Loss of the Child Jesus in the Temple

When Jesus was twelve years old, He stayed behind in Jerusalem without Mary and Joseph's knowledge. They searched for Him in distress for three days before finding Him in the Temple (Luke 2:41-50). This sorrow highlights the anxiety and fear of losing a loved one.

Sorrow 4 – Mary Meets Jesus on the Way to Calvary

As Jesus carried His cross to Calvary, He met His mother along the way. The sight of her suffering Son caused Mary deep sorrow (Luke 23:27-31). This encounter emphasizes the shared suffering between mother and son.

Faith is not something given to us once and for all. Rather, we continually need to rediscover the face of Christ and his Gospel, to enter more deeply into his message and to renew the choices we make in our lives, so that they may be consistent with what we profess. In this way, we can overcome the temptation to think that we already know everything and to reduce faith to mere habit.
