WELCOME HOME TO

SAINT CHARLES CATHOLIC CHURCH

Whether you are visiting or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you home to Saint Charles Borromeo Church! Please consider registering as a member of our Parish family at the Parish Office during business hours. Registration forms are on our Parish Website and in the bulletin. Registration is required for participation in the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation, and Marriage.

When we pray for the dead, we do so not only for them, but also with them, drawn into a reciprocal relationship that the Holy Spirit brings to life in our hearts. The Church is a mystery of communion between Christ, our head, and us, His members: from Him we receive life. This communion unites the blesséd souls who already contemplate the face of God and all those who, in heaven or on earth, are journeying toward the radiant destination. Pope Leo XIV [@Pontifex] X

"Say the rosary every day or as often as you can."

St. Charles, pray for us!

San Carlos, ¡ruega por nosotros!

Happy Thanksgiving

Feliz Día de Acción de Gracias

Fr. John, Fr. Gregg, Fr. Bud, and the Saint Charles Borromeo Church Staff wish everyone a blessed and bountiful Thanksgiving.

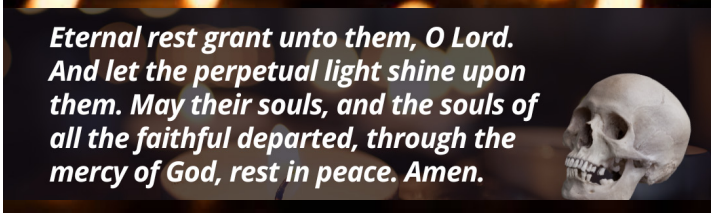

Thanksgiving Mass will be at 9:00 AM on Thursday, November 26th.

The Parish Office will be closed Thursday and Friday, November 26th and 27th in observance of Thanksgiving.

The Office will reopen on Monday, November 30th.

The Month of November is dedicated to the

HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let the perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Thanksgiving

Generous and merciful God,
we thank you for your abundant gifts to us.
As we celebrate this Thanksgiving feast,
we ask you to send your Spirit,
to open our hearts to you and our neighbor,
that we may share the gifts you have given us
as your Son Jesus taught us to.

Thank you for the many blessings
of our lives: our family and friends,
our home and the food we eat,
our health and employment.

We ask your blessing on all gathered here today, and all your people
throughout the world, through Christ your Son.

Amen.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Next weekend St. Vincent de Paul will be putting up this year's

Angel Tree

in the Narthex.

We are collecting gifts for students of St. Charles and Charlotte Harbor Center's special needs. The Charlotte Harbor Center students have very specific needs, therefore suggested gift requests have been listed on the angels.

Gifts need to be returned by December 13th to deliver to the students by Christmas break.

You can donate to St. Vincent de Paul St. Charles through E-Giving at: https://svdppc.weshareonline.org

CATECHETICAL CORNER

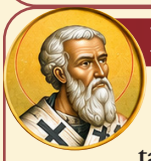

The Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist

The early Church Fathers referred to Christ's presence in the Eucharist. Here are some examples of what early Christian writers had to say on the subject of the the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist:

Ignatius of Antioch

"I have no taste for corruptible food nor for the pleasures of this life. I desire the bread of God, which is the flesh of Jesus Christ... and for drink I desire his blood, which is love incorruptible" (Letter to the Romans 7:3 [A.D. 110]).

Irenaeus

"If the Lord were from other than the Father, how could he rightly take bread, which is of the same creation as our own, and confess it to be his body and affirm that the mixture in the cup is his blood?" (Against Heresies 4:33–32 [A.D. 189]).

Justin Martyr

"For not as common bread nor common drink do we receive these; but since Jesus Christ our Savior was made incarnate by the word of God and had both flesh and blood for our salvation, so too, as we have been taught, the food which has been made into the Eucharist by the Eucharistic prayer set down by him, and by the change of which our blood and flesh is nurtured, is both the flesh and the blood of that incarnated Jesus" (First Apology 66 [A.D. 151]).

Origen

"Formerly, in an obscure way, there was manna for food; now, however, in full view, there is the true food, the flesh of the Word of God, as he himself says: 'My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink' [John 6:55]" (Homilies on Numbers 7:2 [A.D. 248]).

2026 CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL

"Tell them to do good... be generous, ready to share."
— 1 Timothy 6:18

GOD OWNS IT ALL

Everything we own belongs to God, but out of His goodness, he allows us to use what rightfully belongs to Him. We are just managers and stewards of what God has entrusted to us.

One day, when we meet the very Lord of life, we will have to give an account of what kind of job we have done in managing the resources that God has allowed us to use. That's why every spending decision becomes a spiritual decision. Every time we use some of God's money, we are making a decision which has eternal consequences.

So let us ask ourselves, are we using money and possessions as if they belong to us, or are we making spending decisions with the full realization that "God owns it all"?

Please join the other generous people in our Parish family who have already made a gift to the 2026 CFA. Your gift will bring much needed hope and joy to those whose lives are transformed by the programs and ministries funded by the CFA.

Thank you for supporting the Catholic Faith Appeal!

Christmas Memorial Flowers and Jewelry Sale

The Youth Group will be offering Christmas Memorial Flowers and Catholic jewelry, mantillas, Loved tshirts and bumper stickers after the November 28th and 29th Masses in the Narthex.

Donation is $20.00 for each flower memorial.

Flower memorials can also be purchased on our website and in the Parish Office throughout Advent.

Suffering is something every person encounters, yet it can leave us wondering where God is, what purpose our pain could possibly have, and whether anything good can come from what we endure.

Nothing Wasted:

A Catholic Journey Through Redemptive Suffering

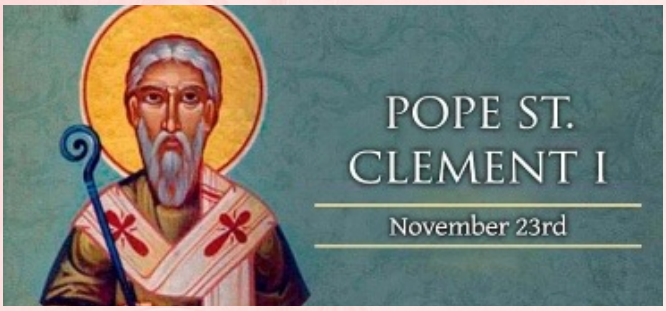

Written for those who are suffering, those who have suffered, and those walking beside someone they love in pain, Nothing Wasted offers a compassionate invitation to discover that suffering does not have to be meaningless. When our wounds, losses, fears, disappointments, and daily crosses are united with Jesus, even the burdens we would never have chosen can become places of prayer, grace, love, and redemption.

In Christ, even suffering can bear fruit.

Copies will be available at the Jewelry Sale.

Contact Michael T. Barrett, DRE at (941) 623-4945 to place your order.

Saints of the Week

Pope St. Clement I is regarded as the third successor to Saint Peter (fourth Pope), ruling in the late 1st century (c. 88–99 AD). He is counted among the five Apostolic Fathers and is famous for authoring the First Epistle of Clement (1 Clement) to the Corinthians around 96 AD, which stands as one of the oldest surviving Christian documents outside the New Testament.

St. Catherine of Alexandria

Highly educated from a young age, St. Catherine of Alexandria mastered philosophy, science, and rhetoric. At age 14, she experienced a profound vision of the Virgin Mary and the infant Jesus, which inspired her to convert to Christianity and dedicate her life as a "bride of Christ".

When the Roman Emperor Maxentius began a brutal wave of Christian persecutions around 305 AD, the 18-year-old Catherine boldly confronted him, rebuking his cruelty and his worship of pagan gods. Intrigued by her beauty and sharp mind, Maxentius summoned 50 of the empire's greatest pagan philosophers and orators to debate her, hoping they would break her faith. Instead, Catherine's brilliant arguments exposed their logical contradictions and converted the philosophers to Christianity on the spot. Catherine was executed and tradition says angels carried her body away to Mount Sinai. In the 6th century, the Byzantine Emperor Justinian established what would become Saint Catherine's Monastery at the foot of Mount Sinai, which remains one of the oldest continuously operating Christian monasteries in the world. Her feast day is November 25.
