There are no strangers here, just friends we have not met!

Many people are rediscovering the Gospel and embracing the faith against the backdrop of a society marked by a deeply secularized culture. With pastoral tenderness and fraternal charity, we must recognize, welcome, and protect the small flame that the Holy Spirit has kindled in the darkness of the night. Pope Leo XIV [@Pontifex] X

“When you hear of someone who has died, you should pray for him/her and remember that you too will soon follow him/her; and so resolve to be ready.”

St. Charles Borromeo
 (1538-1584)

St. Charles, pray for us!

“Cuando te enteres de que alguien ha fallecido, debes orar por él/ella y recordar que tú también pronto le seguirás; y así, decide estar preparado.”

San Carlos Borromeo
 (1538-1584)

wipes, diapers (all sizes), onesies, new complete outfits, new bottoms, socks and shoes (all sizes for boys and girls), baby washcloths and baby books.

CATHOLIC VIRTUES

The virtue of contentment could be described as related to the cardinal virtue of temperance. The temperate person controls his desires instead of being controlled by them; the content person, likewise, rejoices in what he has been given instead of regretting what he lacks. The ungrateful workers in the Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard (Matthew 20:1-16) are perfect examples of discontent. They are driven by a desire for more money than they have been given, more money than they have need of.

It is never a sin to seek what we need, but these pursuits can never define us, and we must always prayerfully rely on the providence of God, who cares even for the “birds of the air” (Matthew 6:25-26). “There is great gain in godliness with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world,” writes Paul (1 Timothy 6:6-10).

VIRTUDES CATÓLICAS

La virtud del contentamiento podría describirse como relacionada con la virtud cardinal de la templanza. La persona templanza controla sus deseos en lugar de ser controlada por ellos; asimismo, la persona contenta se regocija en lo que ha recibido en lugar de lamentar lo que le falta.

Los obreros ingratos de la parábola de los obreros en la viña (Mateo 20:1-16) son ejemplos perfectos de descontento. Los impulsa el deseo de tener más dinero del que han recibido, más dinero del que necesitan. Nunca es pecado buscar lo que necesitamos, pero estas búsquedas jamás nos definen, y siempre debemos confiar en oración en la providencia de Dios, quien cuida incluso de las aves del cielo (Mateo 6:25-26). «Gran ganancia hay en la piedad con contentamiento; porque nada trajimos a este mundo, y nada podemos llevarnos de él», escribe Pablo (1 Timoteo 6:6-10).

Saints of the Week

Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque

(1647-1690) was chosen by Christ to arouse the Church to a realization of God's love by promoting the modern devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In a vision of Jesus Christ while praying before the Blessed Sacrament, Jesus revealed His heart to her engulfed in flames, transparent as crystal, and encircled by a crown of thorns—as a profound symbol of His burning love for humanity and His sorrow over human indifference. Our scientific-materialistic age cannot “prove” private revelations. Theologians, if pressed, admit that we do not have to believe in them. But it is impossible to deny the message Margaret Mary heralded: that God loves us with a passionate love.

Saint Ignatius of Antioch

(c. 33-108), was one of the most prominent early Christian writers, the Bishop of Antioch, and a definitive martyr of the early Church. Ignatius was a direct disciple of John the Apostle and was appointed to lead the See of Antioch—where the followers of Jesus were first called “Christians.”

Ignatius is famous for providing the earliest surviving written record using the term “Catholic Church.” He explicitly affirmed that the bread and wine of the Eucharist are the literal flesh and blood of Christ. He argued that the Old Covenant was fulfilled in the New, pointing Christians toward celebrating the “eighth day” (Sunday, the day of the Resurrection).

We will have 5 relics on display for veneration in the Church on Thursday, October 15th from 9:00 AM until Noon. The 5 relics are:

St. Carlo Acutis - May 3, 1991 - October 12, 2006

St. Dominic Savio - April 2, 1842 – March 9, 1857

Born in Italy, canonized by Pope Gregory IX in 1954. Feast day is March 9. Patron Saint of Choirboys and Juvenile delinquents.

St. Maria Goretti - October 16, 1890 - July 6, 1902

Born in Italy, canonized by Pope Pius XII on June 24, 1950. Feast day is July 6th. Patron of youth, young women, purity, and victims of rape.

St. Therese of Lisieux “The Little Flower” - January 2, 1873 - September 30, 1897

Born in France, canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 17, 1925. Feast day is October 1st. Declared a Doctor of the Church by (Saint) Pope John Paul II in 1997. Patron of the Missions.

St. Ignatius of Loyola - October 23, 1491 - July 31, 1556

Born in Spain, canonized by Pope Gregory XV on March 12, 1622. Feast day is July 31st. Patron of Jesuits, soldiers, spiritual retreats, education, missionary work, preaching, defending, and spreading the Catholic Faith.

CATECHETICAL CORNER

The Mass Explained - Liturgy of the Eucharist, part 2

Overview of the Mass

Key moments in the Mass

8. Consecration of the Bread and Wine

The Eucharistic Prayer is the central, holy heart of the Catholic Liturgy of the Eucharist, where the priest acts in the person of Christ to transform the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus.

Key Components of the Eucharistic Prayer

- The Preface & Dialogue: Opens with an exchange of dialogue ("Lift up your hearts") leading into a prayer of thanksgiving to God the Father, followed by the singing of the Sanctus ("Holy, Holy, Holy").
- The Epiclesis: The priest extends his hands over the gifts and calls down the Holy Spirit to sanctify and change the bread and wine.
- The Institution Narrative & Consecration: The priest repeats Jesus's words from the Last Supper ("This is my body... This is my blood"), effecting the miracle of transubstantiation.
- The Anamnesis: The assembly recalls Christ's passion, resurrection, and ascension, offering the sacrificial victim to the Father.
- Intercessions: Prayers offered in communion with the whole Church, including the Pope, bishop, the living, the dead, and the saints.
- Concluding Doxology & Great Amen: The priest lifts the chalice and paten offering final praise to the Trinity, which the congregation seals with a loud Great Amen.

Engage: Bring the words to life. Live them out. With your spiritual senses, lift up your heart and offer it to the Lord. Place your heart on the altar and allow God to transform it as he will transform the bread and wine.

2026 CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL

*“Tell them to do good...
be generous, ready to share.”*
— 1 Timothy 6:18

As many of you are aware, God and his Church are under fierce attack by evil forces in our community and in our world today. These forces press the limits of free speech in the Public Sector to secular worldview and a low tolerance for alternative views, especially conservative, Christian, and pro-life views. It is evident throughout our society and culture.

It is no different in the public schools where students and teachers are ridiculed, reprimanded, fired or expelled for mentioning God or attempting to pray. Christian business owners are being hauled into court just because they follow their Christian faith. Popular books and movies today are exceedingly violent, dark - often extolling sacrilegious, occult or demonic heroes. Who is the culture holding up for our young people to imitate? God or Satan?

You might ask – what can I do? I’m just one person. One person can make a big difference. The word Gospel literally means “Good News.” What better way to share the Good News than by keeping our Catholic Church and its Ministries strong and in the forefront of the Public Sector.

The Catholic Faith Appeal is the “engine” that keeps many outreaches running strong in our community. Through these Catholic programs we share the love of Jesus Christ by meeting their spiritual and tangible needs. These CFA outreaches share the Good News in word and deed. So let’s be bold. Let’s be courageous and spread the Good News by supporting your St. Charles Borromeo CFA!

Please join the other generous people in our Parish family who have already made a gift to the 2026 CFA. Your gift will bring much needed hope and joy to those whose lives are transformed by the programs and ministries funded by the CFA.

Thank you for supporting the Catholic Faith Appeal!

Your support of the Catholic Faith Appeal strengthens every part of our Diocesan mission.
