 HOPE & LOVE
 TO OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN AFRICA!

SUPPORT THE Solidarity Fund for the CHURCH IN AFRICA

Your gifts to The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa are making a real difference! In the Central African Republic, a grant helped Marianist Sisters purchase bicycles, Bibles, and rosaries and train lay volunteers. They now travel to remote areas to share the Gospel through catechesis, children's camps, and Bible study groups for women and youth.

The Collection for The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa is scheduled in the Diocese of Venice for the weekend of July 11 and 12, 2026.

When you contribute to this collection, you become a partner in Faith to your brothers and sisters in Africa. Please be generous in your response to this important and necessary appeal.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
 + Frank J. Dewane
 Apostolic Administrator of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

CATHOLIC VIRTUES

Perseverance is unique because without it, we cannot grow in any of the other virtues. If we cannot persevere, we cannot carry the cross. Faith, hope, love, mercy, justice, temperance — these virtues are the fruits of a Christian life, and perseverance is the soil in which they take root. Like the soil in any garden, it has to be nourished. Perseverance is fed by trials, difficulties, and temptations. “We rejoice in our sufferings,” writes St. Paul, “knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us.” (Romans 5:4-5)

VIRTUDES CATÓLICAS

La perseverancia es única porque sin ella no podemos crecer en ninguna de las demás virtudes. Si no perseveramos, no podemos cargar la cruz. Fe, esperanza, amor, misericordia, justicia, templanza: estas virtudes son los frutos de la vida cristiana, y la perseverancia es el terreno fértil donde echan raíces. Como la tierra de cualquier jardín, necesita ser nutrida. La perseverancia se alimenta de las pruebas, las dificultades y las tentaciones. «Nos alegramos de nuestros sufrimientos», escribe san Pablo, «sabiendo que el sufrimiento produce paciencia; la paciencia, carácter probado; y el carácter probado, esperanza; y la esperanza no nos defrauda». (Romanos 5:4-5)

THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR OF THE CHURCH EMPHASIZES THE PRECIOUS BLOOD

BECAUSE OF ITS RELATIONSHIP TO CORE CATHOLIC TEACHINGS AND PRACTICES:

- 💧 We believe that when God became man in the person of Jesus Christ, He took on real flesh with a real heart and real blood.
- 💧 The Precious Blood flowed between the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.
- 💧 By shedding His Precious Blood, Jesus sacrificed himself to make satisfaction for the sins of mankind and pour out God's mercy.
- 💧 As atonement for sin, the Precious Blood serves as the instrument of God's grace, shared with us in the sacraments, including Baptism, which washes us in His Blood, and the Eucharist, which nourishes us with His Blood.
- 💧 Catholics call upon the saving power of the Precious Blood when using sacramentals such as holy water and exorcism.
- 💧 Christ's sacrifice of his Blood serves as the model for Catholic moral practice, calling us to imitate His sacrifice in service to God and our neighbor.

Saints of the Week

Saint Henry II (973–1024) was the Duke of Bavaria, King of Germany, and Holy Roman Emperor. Canonized in 1146, he remains the only

Holy Roman Emperor recognized as a saint in the Catholic Church. He is remembered for his political authority and deep religious devotion. St. Henry was instrumental in advancing the Benedictine reforms. He fought against the buying and selling of church offices and promoted clerical celibacy. He and his wife lived a chaste marriage, choosing to dedicate their lives entirely to God and the service of the poor. Because he lacked a biological heir, he dedicated much of his wealth to building churches and founding monasteries, most notably the Diocese of Bamberg.

Saint Bonaventure (1221-1274) played an important role in both the medieval Church and the history of the Franciscan Order.

He had a Franciscan love for Jesus and the Church. Like his model, Saint Francis, Jesus was the center of everything—his teaching, his administration, his writing, and his life. So much so, that he was given the title “Seraphic Doctor,” one who resembles an angel.

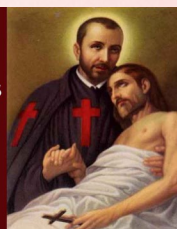

Our Lady of Mount Carmel is the title given to the Blessed Virgin Mary in her role as the patroness of the Carmelite Order. This title originates from Mount Carmel in the Holy Land (modern-day Israel), where hermits established a community in the late 12th century and built a chapel dedicated to Mary.

According to Catholic tradition, Mary appeared to Carmelite prior St. Simon Stock on July 16, 1251, and handed him the brown wool scapular. Tradition holds that Mary promised final perseverance and maternal protection from eternal fire to those who devoutly wear this sacramental. The scapular is not a good luck charm. It represents an outward sign of consecration to Mary, a pledge of her protection, and a commitment to imitate her humility and prayerful life.

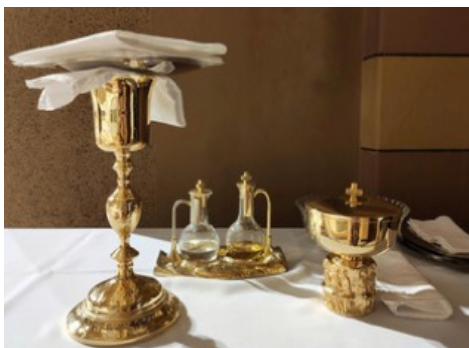

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha (1656 – 1680) is the first Native American woman to be canonized as a saint by the Catholic Church.

She is recognized for her resilience, deep prayer life, and unwavering faith in the face of severe persecution and illness. Kateri was born in a Mohawk village (modern-day Auriesville, New York) to a Mohawk chief and a Christian Algonquin mother. At age 20, she was baptized on Easter Sunday in 1676 by a French Jesuit missionary, taking the name Catherine (Kateri in Mohawk) after Saint Catherine of Siena. Her conversion and explicit vow of perpetual virginity sparked heavy opposition and threats from her tribe, who shunned her and refused her food on Sundays because she would not work. To safely practice her faith, she made a dangerous 200-mile escape to a Christian native community south of Montreal. She died at the age of 24 on April 17, 1680, with her final words being, “Jesus, I love you.” Pope Benedict XVI canonized her on October 21, 2012, after the Vatican authenticated her miraculous intercession in curing a young boy from a fatal flesh-eating bacteria.

Saint Camillus de Lellis (1550–1614) was an Italian Catholic priest who founded the Camillians, a religious order dedicated entirely to caring for the sick. As a young man he had a terrible temper and was very aggressive. After spending time in a hospital, he went to work in a Capuchin friary and had a conversion of heart in 1575. He was horrified by the unsanitary conditions and the harsh treatment of the patients and dedicated himself to reform, becoming the hospital superintendent and under the spiritual direction of St. Philip Neri was ordained a priest in 1584. Centuries before the modern International Red Cross, Camillus designed a large red cloth cross to be worn on his order’s black cassocks. It served as an open symbol of battlefield relief, charity, and emergency medical assistance. His order accompanied armies into the field to treat wounded soldiers on the battlefields of Hungary and Croatia, establishing what is recognized as the first recorded military ambulance corps. He passed away in Rome in 1614 and was canonized by Pope Benedict XIV in 1746.

The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few. Matthew 9:37

If technology becomes the ultimate criterion, the human person risks being reduced to data, a cog in a machine or a commodity. If, however, technology is integrated with a wise perspective, it can become an instrument of growth, justice and fraternity. Magnifica Humanitas.
