WELCOME HOME TO

SAINT CHARLES CATHOLIC CHURCH

Whether you are visiting or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you home to Saint Charles Borromeo Church!

Please consider registering as a member of our Parish family at the Parish Office during business hours.

Registration forms are on our Parish Website and in the bulletin. Registration is required for participation in the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation, and Marriage.

“Just as Christ came into this world only once, clothed in our flesh, He is also ready to come again, at any moment, to dwell spiritually in our hearts with the profusion of His graces, as long as we do not resist Him.”

“Así como Cristo vino a este mundo una sola vez, revestido de nuestra carne, también está dispuesto a venir de nuevo, en cualquier momento, para morar espiritualmente en nuestros corazones con la profusión de sus gracias, siempre y cuando no nos resistamos a Él.”

EASTERTIDE

Eastertide, known as the Great Fifty Days, is the joyful season from Easter Sunday to Pentecost celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Rather than a single day, it is an extended time of rejoicing, centered on themes of light, renewal, and new life.

A key symbol of the season is the Paschal Candle, first lit at the Easter Vigil. Representing Christ as the Light of the World, it burns throughout Eastertide during worship, reminding believers of the victory of life over death.

Eastertide also highlights the renewal of Baptismal Vows, where Christians reaffirm their faith and connection to Christ's death and resurrection. This often includes the use of water, symbolizing spiritual rebirth.

Another defining feature is the return of the Alleluia. Omitted during Lent, it reappears at Easter as a joyful expression of praise, echoing throughout the season.

A traditional Catholic greeting at Easter when greeting family and friends is to say, "He is Risen!" The reply is "He is Risen, Indeed!"

GUIDELINES FOR RECEIVING COMMUNION

FOR CATHOLICS

Catholics fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when they receive Holy Communion in fulfillment of Christ's commandment to eat His Body and drink His Blood. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, communicants should not be conscious of grave sin, have fasted for an hour, and seek to live in charity and love with their neighbors. Persons conscious of grave sin must first be reconciled with God and the Church through the sacrament of Penance. A frequent reception of the sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

FOR OTHER CHRISTIANS

We welcome to this celebration of the Eucharist those Christians who are not fully united with us. It is a consequence of the sad divisions in Christianity that we cannot extend to them a general invitation to receive Communion. Catholics believe that the Eucharist is an action of the celebrating community signifying a oneness in faith, life, and worship of the community. Reception of the Eucharist by Christians not fully united with us would imply a oneness which does not yet exist, and for which we must all pray.

FOR THOSE NOT RECEIVING COMMUNION

Those not receiving sacramental Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with our Lord Jesus and with one another.

FOR NON-CHRISTIANS

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus. While we cannot extend to them an invitation to receive Communion, we do invite them to be united with us in prayer.

A Message from Fr. John Why Are We Here???

Easter brings every Catholic together within the context of the Mass, both those on the fringes of Christian life and those fully committed as Jesus' disciples.

For many decades now, the Church has been fighting a battle to keep Christians Christian, to keep Catholics Catholic. Yet, in many ways, we seem to be losing ground, especially amongst the younger generation. Fallen away Catholics are one of the problems in our nation, as they choose to live out their lives more and more according to what our culture teaches, instead of what God teaches. They allow the "world," as Jesus referred to it, to form their consciences and basic belief systems.

Many fallen away Catholics see their happiness as emanating from and in the world, and prefer to be accepted and formed by the culture (secular and political philosophies and ideologies) rather than by God and His Church. Others claim they don't need organized religion in order to worship God. But more than anything else, I believe that fallen away Catholics don't see the relevancy of attending Mass, the relevancy of being a Disciple of Christ, especially when compared to the transient attractions of the world.

Does Mass matter? Mass empowers us to live life more fully, to live life most fully. This is why we reach out to lost and fallen away Catholics. We do not reach out to these people so that the Church can be more relevant in the world (relevancy in God's eyes is all we need), but so that their individual lives can be more relevant, period; so that they can be empowered to live life most fully, so that they can be love for others as fully possible.

Mass matters, and what we receive at Mass cannot be replicated anywhere else. We are fed and nourished during Mass by God so that we can become our truest selves, so that we can become ever more fully who God created us to be, so that we can become "another Christ" in and for the world. Mass empowers us to not just be "good people," but to be the best people, the best mirror image of Christ that we can possibly be.

The more we receive spiritual nourishment, including especially the spiritual nourishment we receive at Mass, the freer we become, the stronger we become so that we can become ever more empowered to say "yes" to God, to say "yes" to doing and saying whatever God asks us to do and to say.

To choose to live a life without regularly attending Mass limits and diminishes our lives in the here and now, which adversely affects our choices for eternity. Please don't fast from God. Allow this heavenly Easter banquet to be the beginning of your weekly feasting on the spiritual food that will empower you to most fully become the person you were created to be, the person that deep down you desire to be more than anything else.

Have a blessed Easter, and I pray that we see you next weekend!

Fr. John Fitch

Pope Leo XIV [@Pontifex] X

A Prayer for the Jubilee Year of St. Francis

Saint Francis, our brother, you who eight hundred years ago went to meet Sister Death as a man at peace, intercede for us before the Lord.

You recognized true peace in the Crucifix of San Damiano, teach us to seek in Him the source of all reconciliation that breaks down every wall.

You who, unarmed, crossed the lines of war and misunderstanding, give us the courage to build bridges where the world raises up boundaries.

In this time afflicted by conflict and division, intercede for us so that we may become peacemakers: unarmed and disarming witnesses of the peace that comes from Christ.

Amen.

In the Womb with Jesus - Week 2

Though Mary does not yet feel our savior inside her, He is growing rapidly! One single divine cell becomes two, then four, and eight. Jesus, looking like a tiny ball, implants Himself in Mary's uterus this week. Through this bond, she will provide for all His needs.

Jesus of the Womb, hear our prayers!

Catholic Faith Appeal

“Tell them to do good... be generous, ready to share.” (1 Tim 6:18)

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Rooted in Gospel values, our bold Christ-centered mission of educating the whole child nurtures the mind, body, and soul. Diocese of Venice Schools have enjoyed impressive growth over the past five years; a 49% increase in enrollment makes us the fastest growing Diocesan School System in the country. Formed in Faith and educated for excellence, our students have Catholic virtues integrated into every subject and every school activity from preschool to high school. This rigorous, virtue-based curriculum is called “The Gifts of Christ: Truth, Beauty, Goodness, Affability, Fortitude, Humility, and Prudence.” Our Schools, Pastors, principals, and teachers provide the outstanding Catholic Education expected by parents and parishioners. The result is that our Schools produce compassionate leaders who live out their faith for the Church and the world.

STREAM is an acronym for Science, Technology, Religion, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics. Every student in every school is trained in engineering and robotic concepts through access to cutting-edge technology and hands-on learning. The emphasis on Faith is matched by academic success with many of our students reading two-grade levels above the National Average. Each year, our graduates are accepted into the finest educational institutions in the country.
