Serenity and joy can be found even amidst suffering, because God grants us the grace to look beyond our earthly horizon towards a more distant future of immeasurable happiness in God, which we are assured of attaining if we remain steadfast in faith and charity. The sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed in us (Rm 8:18). Pope Leo XIV [@Pontifex] X

Saints of the Week

Saint Paul of the Cross established the Passionists (officially the Congregation of the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ). They are a religious order of priests, brothers, sisters, nuns, and lay associates. In addition to the traditional vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, the Passionists took a fourth vow to promote devotion to and remembrance of the Passion of Jesus Christ. They first arrived in the United States in 1852 settling initially in Pittsburgh and eventually spreading around the country.

Saint John of Capistrano entered the Franciscan novitiate in October 1416. He studied theology under St. Bernardine of Siena and helped pioneer the Franciscan Observants, an austere movement dedicated to a stricter, more primitive observance of the Franciscan rule. He was ordained a priest around 1425. John of Capistrano's preaching attracted great throngs at a time of religious apathy and confusion. He and 12 Franciscan brethren were received in the countries of central Europe as angels of God. They were instrumental in reviving a dying faith and devotion.

In Memory of

Most Reverend Bishop

Frank J. Dewane

March 9, 1950 – October 7, 2026

Most Reverend Frank J. Dewane, Bishop Emeritus of Venice in Florida, passed away early in the morning, October 7, 2026, at the age of 76.

Bishop Dewane was born on March 9, 1950, in Green Bay, Wisconsin, the third of four children of Ben and Eleanor Dewane, who raised their family on a dairy farm. He earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin and a master's degree in international administration from American University in Washington, D.C.. He worked for NBC in Moscow and later for a PepsiCo subsidiary in New York before entering seminary. He prepared for the priesthood at the Pontifical North American College in Rome, studying theology at the Pontifical Gregorian University and canon law at the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas, and was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Green Bay on July 16, 1988.

After parish ministry and service on the diocesan tribunal in Green Bay, he was called into the service of the Holy See in 1991, first at the Permanent Observer Mission to the United Nations in New York, then at the Pontifical Council "Cor Unum" in Rome, and finally as Under Secretary of the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace. Pope Benedict XVI named him Coadjutor Bishop of Venice in Florida on April 25, 2006. He was ordained a bishop at Epiphany Cathedral in Venice on July 25, 2006, by Bishop John J. Nevins, with Archbishop John C. Favalora of Miami as a co-consecrator, and he succeeded Bishop Nevins as the second Bishop of Venice on January 19, 2007. He took as his episcopal motto Iustitia, Pax, Gaudium: Justice, Peace, Joy. Over nearly twenty years as shepherd of the Diocese of Venice he ordained 38 priests and 28 permanent deacons, erected six new parishes, expanded Catholic Charities and affordable housing across Southwest Florida, and chaired the U.S. bishops' Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development. Pope Leo XIV accepted his resignation on May 13, 2026, and he served as Apostolic Administrator until his successor, Bishop Emilio Biosca Agüero, OFM Cap., took possession of the Diocese in July 2026.

We give thanks to God for Bishop Dewane's 38 years of priestly ministry, his 20 years as a bishop, and his spiritual leadership of approximately 260,000 Catholics in the 10-county Diocese of Venice in Florida. Please remember him in your prayers and at Mass in the days ahead.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon him.
May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Let Us Unite in Prayer for the Holy Father

Pope Leo XIV announced on Sunday, October 11, that he would undergo surgery to remove a localized nodule in his lung, and he asked for our prayers.

As he recovers from this surgery, we can support the Holy Father through prayer, small sacrifices, and acts of charity, asking God to watch over his health, his recovery, and those who will care for him.

Here Are Five Things You Can Offer Starting Today:

1 Pray the Rosary with Your Family or Community

Pray the Rosary with your family or community, asking the Blessed Virgin Mary to accompany the Pope during his surgery and recovery. Remember to include his doctors and caregivers in your intentions.

We are in the month of the Rosary, and Leo XIV has a special devotion to Our Lady of Good Counsel that he has nurtured since his youth. Let us entrust his health to her maternal intercession.

2 Attend Mass One Extra Day This Week

In addition to attending Sunday Mass, why not attend Mass one extra day this week to pray especially for the Pope?

The Holy Father is mentioned in the Eucharistic Prayer as an expression of communion with him. This week, let us also offer our personal prayers for his health and recovery, asking the Lord to protect and strengthen him.

If your responsibilities allow, find a weekday Mass and devote that time to praying for him.

3 Offer a Small Sacrifice Made With Love

You can give up a treat, an unnecessary purchase, or some time spent on entertainment, offering that small sacrifice for the Pope's health.

If you decide to spend less time on social media or in front of a screen, use a few of those minutes to pray for him. It is not about doing something extraordinary, but about making a concrete offering with love.

4 Show Love to Someone Who Is Suffering

This week, visit someone who is sick, spend time with someone who is lonely, or help a family in need.

You can also call someone who is going through a difficult time and listen attentively. Offer that act of charity for the Pope and for all those who are sick.

Let our prayers be accompanied by a tangible gesture of care for those who are suffering.

5 Offer Your Pain and Daily Difficulties for Him

Place in Jesus' hands the fatigue, worries, illnesses, pain, and setbacks you are experiencing.

Without seeking suffering or neglecting your health, you can unite your difficulties to Christ and offer them for the Holy Father's health and strength.

Lord Jesus, watch over Pope Leo XIV. Guide his doctors, give him strength, and grant him a full and speedy recovery, according to your will.

Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Lady of Good Counsel, pray for him. Amen.

FLORIDA GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE COMPARISON

GENERAL ELECTION // NOVEMBER 3, 2026

In keeping with its mission, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops aims to educate and inform Catholics about a wide range of issues. The information compiled here has been gathered from policies, public statements, government and campaign websites, and other resources, as of September 24, 2026, to help voters form their consciences before voting in November. The issues that appear here do not represent a complete list of issues that may be of importance to Catholics. The FCCB neither supports nor opposes any candidate for public office.

DAVID JOLLY Democrat		BYRON DONALDS Republican

ABORTION

Jolly's campaign website states that he is "explicitly pro-choice" and that he supports allowing abortion up to 24 weeks of pregnancy, with exceptions past that point "to protect maternal life or health."	Donalds said he would keep Florida's current limit on abortion at 6 weeks of gestation in place, adding that he wants the state to support pregnancy resource centers and community pregnancy clinics.

AFFORDABILITY

Jolly has identified property insurance as the "primary reason" for Florida's housing affordability problems. Jolly proposes to lower homeowners' insurance by utilizing a statewide catastrophic fund, and to reduce utility bills by capping utility company profits. Jolly also plans to offer interest-free loans to condo-owners to cover special assessments.	Donalds has stated that government compliance and permitting fees on new housing construction are artificially driving up the costs on home acquisition and has suggested examining regulatory burdens. Donalds proposes creating an online scorecard, which would use state-collected data to allow consumers to compare insurance products.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Jolly proposes to enforce accountability while reducing discrimination. His Fighting Crime, Not Communities proposal supports modifying mandatory minimum sentences to distinguish between first-time offenders and organized crime figures. He favors "sentencing guidelines that don't depend on victim race and prosecution standards that don't vary by defendant race."	Donalds' campaign discusses public safety in the context of immigration policy: he identifies public subsidies as an incentive encouraging illegal immigration. He also supports increasing officer pay and protecting officers from "frivolous complaints."

DEATH PENALTY

Jolly anticipates pausing executions "until a thorough review of the patterns and practices of the death penalty in Florida can be completed by a new Administration." He has stated that he "would not ever sign a death warrant that did not have a unanimous verdict."	Donalds supports the use of the death penalty, stating that he would "ensure violent criminals swiftly face the full weight of justice."

FLORIDA CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

The information contained in this document is provided for educational purposes only. The Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops does not endorse or oppose any candidate or political party.

EDUCATION
Jolly supports increased funding for Florida's public schools and raising teacher pay. Jolly stated his intention to continue Florida's school choice system, but he proposes making the scholarship program means-tested, as well as requiring participating private schools to provide the same specialized services public schools provide and cap their rate of tuition increase.	Donalds supports Florida's school choice system, stating that his "guiding principle" is that parents be "at the head of the table when it comes to making decisions for the future of their children." Donalds proposes to require "personalized success plans" for every student, tailored toward multiple employment paths, as well as prioritizing early literacy and physical fitness.
ENVIRONMENT
Jolly supports investment in environmental protection and climate planning in state policy. Jolly has called for a halt on the construction of data centers, stating that Florida "lacks the necessary environmental protections."	In Congress, Donalds sponsored a bill to increase funding to combat algal blooms that died in committee and co-sponsored a bill that would modernize the National Park Service and Fish and Wildlife Service that remains in committee. Also in Congress, Donalds sponsored a bill requiring new and existing data centers to use off-grid power and water supplies instead of public utilities that has been referred to committee.
GENDER IDEOLOGY
When explicitly asked about his stance on "gender medicine for minors," David Jolly stated that "...government should stay out of your life, [and] out of your doctor's office..."	Donalds opposes so-called "sex reassignment" surgeries and interventions. In Congress, he co-sponsored a bill still in committee that allows parents to sue providers of such interventions.
HEALTH CARE
Jolly supports expanding Medicaid "to cover hundreds of thousands of uninsured Floridians" and investing in more primary care clinics throughout the state "so people can access care when and where they need it, regardless of income."	As a congressman, Donalds supported restricting Medicaid eligibility to "people who are disabled, for children, for single parents with multiple kids." He proposes lowering health care costs with a variety of projects, including lowering pharmacy markups and requiring providers to offer cash discounts.
IMMIGRATION
Jolly's campaign site states, "Florida should embrace our immigrant community and celebrate their contributions to our state's culture and economy. It's time to create a Florida for all people." Jolly supports having local law enforcement focus on crime and safety rather than enforcing federal immigration law. He opposes mandatory 287(g) agreements with ICE (which delegate certain federal immigration enforcement duties to local law enforcement agencies).	In Congress, Donalds sponsored bills that would end case management programs to solely rely on detention and create a biometric data system to track immigrants. He also co-sponsored a bill that would require the IRS to report biographical information to Homeland Security. These bills either died or remain in committee. Donalds supports continued state and local coordination with federal efforts to deport those who have committed crimes, as well as requiring every business to use the E-Verify system (currently required of businesses with 25 or more employees).

2026 CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL

"Tell them to do good... be generous, ready to share."
— 1 Timothy 6:18

Many people wonder - Should I make a pledge or a one-time gift?

Making a pledge allows you to spread your gift throughout the year, which may make it easier for you to pay, and may also allow you to be more generous. Pledge statements are sent out monthly unless you otherwise request it. These are simply reminders and not bills. You can pay your pledge any time before the end of the year. If your situation changes, you may also adjust your pledge.

Thanks to all who've already made a pledge or a gift to the St. Charles Borromeo CFA!

Please join the other generous people in our Parish family who have already made a gift to the 2026 CFA. Your gift will bring much needed hope and joy to those whose lives are transformed by the programs and ministries funded by the CFA.
