"The principal thing we must acquire and have is the grace of God, without which one cannot live in a Christian way."

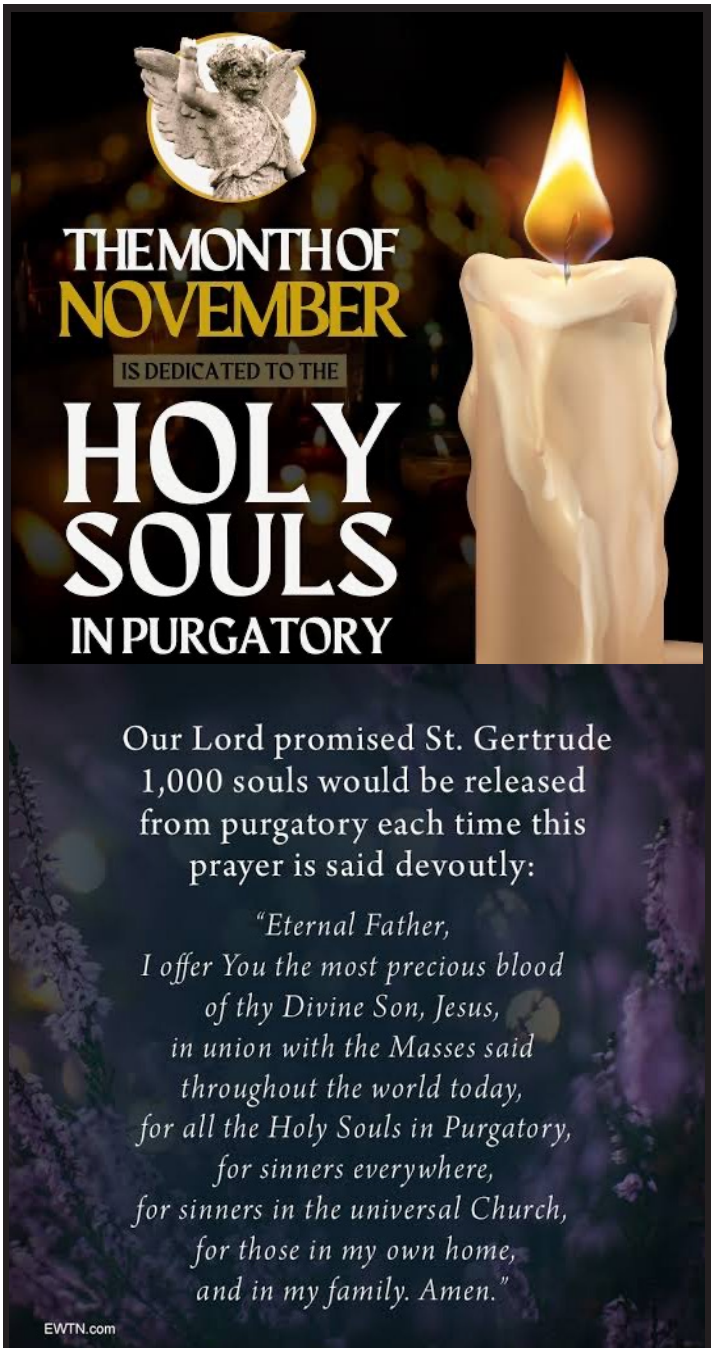

St. Charles Borromeo
(1538-1584)

St. Charles, pray for us!

"Lo principal que debemos adquirir y poseer es la gracia de Dios, sin la cual no se puede vivir de manera Cristiana."

San Carlos Borromeo
(1538-1584)

San Carlos, ¡ruega por nosotros!

Let us #PrayTogether for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

CATHOLIC VIRTUES

The virtue of faithfulness measures how closely our actions resemble the promises that preceded them. The faithful man does what he said he would do, for however long he has committed to doing it. Our faithfulness throughout our life of discipleship should mirror God's own faithfulness. When our faithfulness fails, we have been given the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

VIRTUDES CATÓLICAS

La virtud de la fidelidad mide cuán fieles son nuestras acciones a las promesas que las precedieron. El hombre fiel cumple lo que prometió, durante todo el tiempo que se comprometió a hacerlo. Nuestra fidelidad a lo largo de nuestra vida de discipulado debe reflejar la fidelidad de Dios. Cuando nuestra fidelidad falla, se nos ha dado el Sacramento de la Reconciliación.

In the Womb with Jesus
Week 33

Jesus now weighs five and a half pounds! He has gotten so big inside the small frame of His mother that He cannot move around as much as He used to. It won't be long now!

Jesus of the Womb, hear our prayers!

Married 30 years or more?

Email us the date and how many years married and we will celebrate you in the bulletin.

NOTE: This announcement is put into the first bulletin of the month, so please send us your information the month before or earlier. Please send this information each year so that our files stay updated.

THE 2ND ANNUAL BATTLE FOR THE SHIELD BASKETBALL CLASSIC!

What a day of competition, sportsmanship, and community! The Battle for the Shield brought together student-athletes who competed with heart, represented their schools with pride, and reminded us what makes athletics so special.

A huge THANK YOU to our participating schools — St. Charles, Genesis Christian, Venice Christian, Family Christian, and Charlotte Prep — for being part of this year's classic. We are grateful to the coaches, players, families, and fans who helped make this event a success!

We also want to extend our sincere appreciation to all of our sponsors and supporters. Your generosity and commitment to our student-athletes made this event possible, and we are blessed to have you as part of the Crusader community. 🙏

Thank you to everyone who helped make the 2nd Annual Battle for the Shield one to remember!

FAITH. COMPETE. UNITE. ⚔️🛡️

"I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought."

SCAN THE QR CODE TO DONATE TO THE CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL TODAY!

Generosity is a mentality that is so appropriate for the Christian life and it is not hard to see how valuable and helpful, how positive and motivating it can be. If we thought of generosity as the expression of our Christian faith, the way we live our Christian life, what great promises that would hold. Sometimes we must think of our faith as a series of obligations and commandments that we have to fulfill or else, rather than an eager living of our faith to the fullest as generously as we can.

There is a beauty in generosity that puts a whole new face on our relationship with God. If we focus on generously serving Him doesn't that presume the observance of His commandments and then go beyond? I don't want to just do what I have to do for Jesus and Mary, but I want to do more, much more if I can. I want to be generous and as generous as I can possibly be to give vent to my love for them.

And this is the principle point of generosity – it is a sign and expression of love; and great generosity is a sign of great love. Is this not how Jesus and Mary manifested their love for us? Is generosity not a good word to describe what they did for us and continue to do?

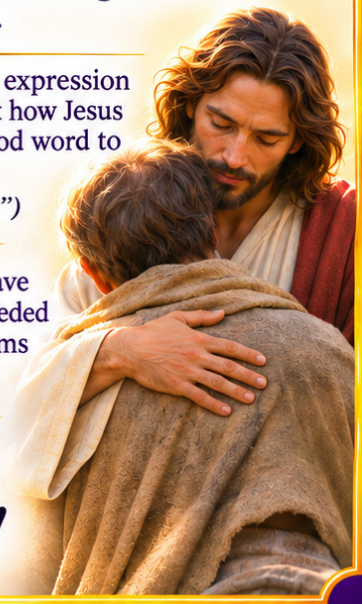

(excerpts from Fr. Dominic Savio Mary Murphy, FI essay – "Generosity")

Please join the other generous people in our Parish family who have already made a gift to the 2026 CFA. Your gift will bring much needed hope and joy to those whose lives are transformed by the programs and ministries funded by the CFA.

Thank you for supporting the Catholic Faith Appeal!

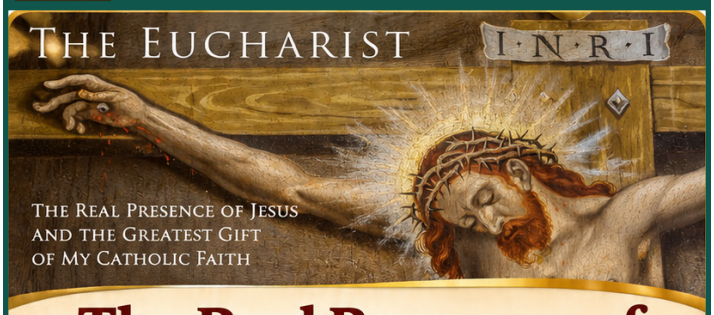

Your support of the Catholic Faith Appeal strengthens every part of our Diocesan mission.

Thank you for your generosity!

CATECHETICAL CORNER

The Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist

The doctrine of the Real Presence asserts that in the Holy Eucharist Jesus is literally and wholly present—body and blood, soul and divinity—under the appearances of bread and wine.

1 The Scriptural Basis

- The Last Supper: In Matthew 26:26–28, Mark 14:22–24, and Luke 22:19–20, Jesus did not say "this represents my body." He stated directly, "This is my body" and "This is my blood."

- The Bread of Life Discourse: In John 6:51–56, Jesus insists multiple times that His flesh is real food and His blood is real drink, using the Greek word trogein (to chew or gnaw) to emphasize the physical reality of His statement when challenged by the crowd.

2 Transubstantiation (Substance vs. Accidents)

To explain how this happens without changing what the elements look or taste like, the Church uses philosophical terms from St. Thomas Aquinas:

- Substance: The inner reality or fundamental "whatness" of a thing. During the consecration at Mass, the substance of the bread and wine completely changes into the Body and Blood of Christ.

- Accidents: The outward physical properties—such as color, taste, texture, smell, and chemical structure. These accidents remain unchanged, which is why it still looks and tastes like bread and wine.

3 A Personal Encounter, Not Just a Memory

- More than a Symbol: While many Christian traditions view Communion as a symbolic memorial of Jesus's death, the Catholic Church teaches that the Eucharist makes Christ's one eternal sacrifice on the cross actively and truly present.

- Whole Christ: Because Christ is risen and alive, His body cannot be separated from His blood, soul, and divinity; therefore, the whole Christ is present in every consecrated host and chalice.

Saints of the Week

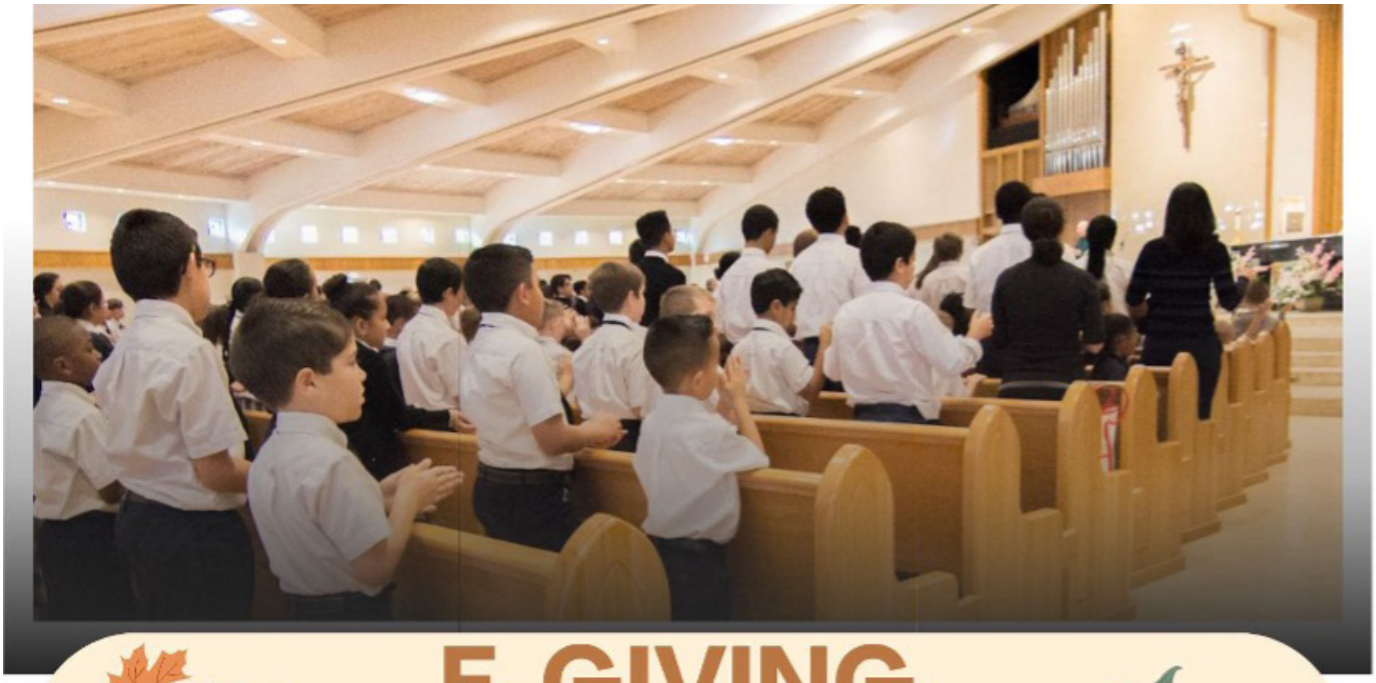

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary

married Louis of Thuringia at 14. Deeply in love, they had three children. Despite her husband's wealth, she led a life of prayer, sacrifice, and service to the poor and sick under the spiritual direction of a Franciscan friar. St. Elizabeth joined the Secular Franciscan Order in 1228, where she cared for the poor in a hospital she founded in honor of St. Francis of Assisi. She died in 1231, but her great popularity resulted in her being named a saint only four years later. Her feast day is November 17th. St. Elizabeth of Hungary, pray for us!

The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Mary's parents, Saints Joachim and Anne, who had been childless, promised to dedicate her to God. When Mary reached the age of three, they brought her to the Temple in Jerusalem to live and serve. This symbolizes Mary's complete dedication and consecration to God from her early childhood. It highlights how God prepares individuals for unique missions—in Mary's case, to become the Mother of God. God came to dwell in her in a marvelous manner and sanctified her for her unique role in God's saving work. The memorial is celebrated on November 21st.

E-GIVING NOVEMBER

What is E-Giving?

- E-Giving allows you to make your financial contributions to the parish electronically through a secure online platform, rather than placing an envelope in the collection basket during Mass.
- Your donations are securely and automatically transferred from your credit card or bank account directly to the parish's account.
- You can choose the amount and frequency of your donation, and you have the flexibility to update or adjust your giving at any time!

Sign up today by visiting www.stcharlespc.org!
