St. Charles Borromeo celebrated his very first Mass on the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Mother of God (August 15, 1563) at the tomb of Saints Peter and Paul in Rome.

He composed a prayer,
“O Holy Mother of God,
 pray for the priests
 your Son has chosen
 to serve His Church.
 Help them by thy
 intercession, to be holy,
 zealous and chaste.
 Make them models
 of virtue, in the service
 of God’s people.”

San Carlos Borromeo celebró su primera misa en la Solemnidad de la Asunción de la Madre de Dios (15 de agosto de 1563) en la tumba de los santos Pedro y Pablo en Roma.

Compuso una oración:
«Oh Santa Madre de Dios, ruega por los sacerdotes que tu Hijo
 ha elegido para servir
 a su Iglesia. Ayúdalos,
 por tu intercesión, a ser
 santos, celosos y castos.
 Haz de ellos modelos
 de virtud al servicio del
 pueblo de Dios».

CATHOLIC VIRTUES

The word “serenity” is only found once in the Catechism of the Catholic Church: in the section describing the effects of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, quoting the Council of Trent when it declared that a good confession “is usually followed by peace and serenity of conscience.”

What is serenity? It is an attitude of calm, one that can only be identified when contrasted with turmoil. It is stillness in a storm. It is Christ, walking steadily across the raging waves. That the Catechism links it exclusively with reconciliation to God tells us all we need to know about this virtue. Where can we find calm in turmoil, stillness in storm? Where can we find serenity? There is only one place: the merciful embrace of God in His sacraments.

VIRTUDES CATÓLICAS

La palabra «serenidad» aparece solo una vez en el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica: en la sección que describe los efectos del Sacramento de la

Reconciliación, citando al Concilio de Trento, que declaró que una buena confesión «suele ir seguida de paz y serenidad de conciencia». ¿Qué es la serenidad? Es una actitud de calma, que solo se puede identificar al contrastarla con la agitación. Es quietud en medio de la tormenta. Es Cristo, caminando con firmeza sobre las olas embravecidas. Que el Catecismo la vincule exclusivamente con la reconciliación con Dios nos dice todo lo que necesitamos saber sobre esta virtud. ¿Dónde podemos encontrar calma en medio de la agitación, quietud en medio de la tormenta? ¿Dónde podemos encontrar serenidad? Solo hay un lugar: el abrazo misericordioso de Dios en sus sacramentos.

ST. CHARLES BORROMEO CATHOLIC SCHOOL

OUR MISSION:

St. Charles Borromeo Catholic School is a place where every child is spiritually and academically nurtured to their fullest potential, creating lifelong learners who value and live our Catholic faith.

This summer, two of our own answered the call to serve far beyond the classroom. In early June, Ms. Hudachko and Coach Taylor traveled together to Limatambo, Peru, where they served at an orphanage school and led Vertical Vision basketball clinics for the children. Their time was spent sharing skills on the court, building relationships, and offering practical support through the distribution of rosaries, Bibles, stickers, and school supplies.

Coach Taylor continued the mission later in the summer, traveling to the island of Bohol in the Philippines. There he ran three Vertical Vision basketball clinics for local youth, once again combining athletic instruction with acts of faith and generosity.

We are grateful for Ms. Hudachko and Coach Taylor's dedication to living out the Gospel through service.

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU TO THE PARISH MEMBERS OF OUR OWN ST. CHARLES BORROMEO FAMILY AND ST. FRANCIS ASSISI IN GROVE CITY FOR PROVIDING THE ROSARIES AND TO OUR NJHS FOR THE SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

ST. CHARLES TEACHERS & STAFF ARE BACK IN ACTION AS THEY ATTENDED A ST. CHARLES MASS TOGETHER THIS PAST WEEK AND PREPARED FOR THE UPCOMING SCHOOL YEAR! THANK YOU, FATHER GREG!

ST. LAWRENCE
August 10th

Saint Lawrence
In AD 258, Emperor Valerian issued an edict: all bishops, priests and deacons must be put to death. At first, the emperor offered to spare Lawrence's life, in exchange for his handing over of "the treasures of the Church." Lawrence is said to have presented the emperor with the sick, the needy, and the marginalized. These, he said, are the treasures of the Church. Four days later, on August 10, Saint Lawrence was martyred. After his death, the body of Saint Lawrence was laid in a tomb on the Via Tiburtina. In this place, Emperor Constantine erected a basilica that was restored in the 20th century after damage caused during WWII.

St. Clare of Assisi, Virgin
Feast Day
August 11

Saint Clare of Assisi
(1194-1253) was the founder of the Poor Clares and became the first woman to write a set of monastic guidelines for a religious order.

They lived a simple life of great poverty, austerity, and complete seclusion from the world. The Poor Ladies went barefoot, slept on the ground, ate no meat, and observed almost complete silence.

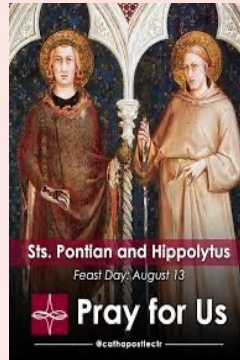

They possessed no property, even in common, subsisting on daily contributions. Later the Pope tried to persuade her to moderate this rigor, but she showed her characteristic firmness: "I need to be absolved from my sins, but I do not wish to be absolved from the obligation of following Jesus Christ."

Catholicreadings.org
St. Jane Frances de Chantal
Feast Day
August 12

Saint Jane Frances
(1572-1641) was a wife, mother, nun, and founder of a religious community known as the Visitation nuns.

After her husband died, she met St. Francis de Sales who became her spiritual director and asked Jane to run an institute of women that would be a haven for those whose health, age, or other considerations barred them from entering the already established communities. It would be a cloistered community following the rule of St. Augustine. They were primarily intended to exemplify the virtues of Mary at the Visitation—hence their name the Visitation nuns—humility and meekness.

Sts. Pontian and Hippolytus
Feast Day: August 13
Pray for Us
@catholiccollectr

Saints Pontian and Hippolytus are celebrated together as early Christian martyrs. Pope St. Pontian was consecrated as the Bishop of Rome (Pope) in 230 AD. St. Hippolytus grew deeply frustrated with the Church leadership accusing Pontian's predecessors of being dangerously lax in forgiving serious sins and soft on heresy. In his overzealous defiance, Hippolytus broke communion and had himself elected as a rival Bishop of Rome, making him the first antipope in Church history.

In 235 AD, the anti-Christian Roman Emperor Maximinus Thrax launched a brutal persecution of Church leaders. Both Pope Pontian and his fierce rival, Antipope Hippolytus, were arrested and condemned to labor. Stripped of their titles and sharing the exact same brutal captivity, the two men faced their suffering together. Hippolytus repented of his schism, surrendered his claim to the papacy, and formally reconciled with Pontian, bringing an eighteen-year Church division to a peaceful end. Today, they are venerated as the patron saints of reconciliation, Church unity, and courage in times of persecution.

St. Maximilian Kolbe
Feast Day: August 14
Pray for Us
@catholiccollectr

Saint Maximilian Kolbe
(1894-1941) was a Polish Franciscan friar. At age ten, Kolbe experienced a vision of the Virgin Mary, who presented him with two crowns: white for purity and red for martyrdom. He chose both. He founded the Militia Immaculatae (Army of the Immaculate) in 1917, building a massive publishing empire with modern printing presses and short-wave radio to spread the Gospel. He built Niepokalanów, a giant monastic community near Warsaw, and traveled to Japan to establish a monastery in Nagasaki that survived the 1945 atomic blast.

Following the 1939 Nazi invasion of Poland, his monastery provided shelter and vital aid to thousands of Polish refugees, including approximately 2,000 Jews. When ten prisoners at Auschwitz were selected to die, St. Maximilian Kolbe volunteered to take the place of one who had a wife and children. The man he replaced, Franciszek Gajowniczek, survived Auschwitz, lived to the age of 93, and was present at Kolbe's canonization in Rome. Maximilian Mary Kolbe was beatified in 1971 and canonized in 1982.

GUIDELINES FOR RECEIVING COMMUNION

FOR CATHOLICS

Catholics fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when they receive Holy Communion in fulfillment of Christ's commandment to eat His Body and drink His Blood. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, communicants should not be conscious of grave sin, have fasted for an hour, and seek to live in charity and love with their neighbors. Persons conscious of grave sin must first be reconciled with God and the Church through the sacrament of Penance. A frequent reception of the sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

FOR OTHER CHRISTIANS

We welcome to this celebration of the Eucharist those Christians who are not fully united with us. It is a consequence of the sad divisions in Christianity that we cannot extend to them a general invitation to receive Communion. Catholics believe that the Eucharist is an action of the celebrating community signifying a oneness in faith, life, and worship of the community. Reception of the Eucharist by Christians not fully united with us would imply a oneness which does not yet exist, and for which we must all pray.

FOR THOSE NOT RECEIVING COMMUNION

Those not receiving sacramental Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with our Lord Jesus and with one another.

FOR NON-CHRISTIANS

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus. While we cannot extend to them an invitation to receive Communion, we do invite them to be united with us in prayer.

Let us all seek to live in charity, love, and unity.

THANK YOU FOR RESPECTING THESE GUIDELINES.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary A Sign of Hope

The feast of the Assumption is a reminder to us that heaven gets even better! We pray that the souls of the faithful departed would soon be united to God in heaven. The truth is, the separation between our souls and our bodies was not God's original plan for things. It's one of the results of the Fall, of original sin. At the end of time and Jesus' second coming, our bodies and souls will be reunited. Lest we forget, Mary's Assumption is the reminder.

We celebrate that Mary is enjoying what we, too, hope to participate in — complete joy in heaven with our God, experienced body and soul.

Today and every day, let's pray for those who have died and that we may meet them again in the heavenly kingdom.

In 2026, this solemnity is not obligatory since it falls on a Saturday.

PROPER ETIQUETTE IN CHURCH

1. KEEP SACRED SILENCE

On entering church, remember that we are gathering for prayer and worship. The Church is a lot holier than a library.

2. CELL PHONES SHOULD BE TURNED OFF.

Turn your attention to God and set aside the distractions of the world.

3. ARRIVE ON TIME

If you are running late, enter as quietly and discretely as possible. You should not come to Communion if you have come in later than the Gospel reading. Chronic lateness for the Mass is rude and disruptive.

4. PAY ATTENTION & PARTICIPATE

Sit, stand, and kneel on cue if you are able. During Consecration, if you are unable to kneel, stand instead of sitting.
