We live surrounded by so many words, but how many of these are empty! At times we even listen to wise words, which do not however affect our ultimate destiny. On the contrary, the Word of God responds to our thirst for meaning, for the truth about our life. It is the only Word that is always new: revealing the mystery of God to us, it is inexhaustible, it never ceases to offer its riches. Pope Leo XIV [@Pontifex] X

GRANDPARENTS DAY CELEBRATION!

On the final day of Catholic Schools Week, our school joyfully celebrated Grandparents Day, honoring the love, wisdom, and faith-filled legacy of our grandparents. Students enjoyed sharing lunch with their grandparents, exploring campus together, and creating lasting memories. The day was filled with smiles and laughter during a school-wide scavenger hunt and raffle, bringing generations closer through fun and connection.

These special moments remind us that Catholic education is grounded in family, tradition, and the faith passed down through generations. A heartfelt thank you to our dedicated PTO for their time, effort, and love in making the day unforgettable.

“Children’s children are the crown of the aged.” – Proverbs 17:6

Catholic Virtues

True humility does not require us to ignore, underestimate or hide our gifts — it merely demands that we use these gifts rightly, with the knowledge that they are from our Creator and meant for His glory, not our own. The Blessed Mother is the perfect model of this, and her Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55) is a blueprint for a life lived in joyful humility.

Virtudes católicas

La verdadera humildad no nos exige ignorar, subestimar ni ocultar nuestros dones; simplemente exige que los usemos correctamente, conscientes de que provienen de nuestro Creador y están destinados a su gloria, no a la nuestra. La Santísima Madre es el modelo perfecto de esto, y su Magníficat (Lucas 1:46-55) es un modelo para una vida vivida con gozosa humildad.

Catholic Faith Appeal

“Tell them to do good... be generous, ready to share.” (1 Tim 6:18)

PARISH, APOSTOLATE & MISSION

Throughout the Diocese of Venice, the Church is present in many forms including Parishes, Missions, and Apostolates. Each of these works together to provide opportunities for the Faithful to join in worship and show their devotion to the Catholic Faith. The Diocese is committed to serving the needs of all the Faithful, regardless of locality, language or ability to travel to a place of Worship. This devotion to serve all is evidenced by the Diocese having 124 Priests, 61 Parishes, 6 Missions and the Celebration of Mass being held in eight different languages including: English, French, Haitian Creole, Latin, Polish, Portuguese, Spanish, and Vietnamese.

A Parish is the heart of Catholic life in a local community. It is an organized, established congregation under the care of a Pastor/Administrator, where the Faithful gather for worship, Sacraments, and spiritual growth. Parishes provide a home for prayer, education and fellowship, fostering a sense of belonging and Faith.

An Apostolate is dedicated to specific aspects of Catholic life and service. They may focus on education, healthcare, social justice, evangelization, or charitable works. Apostolates allow laypeople and clergy to live out their Baptismal call by serving others and spreading the Gospel in practical, impactful ways.

A Mission extends the presence of the Church to areas where a Parish is not fully established. They serve as centers for worship and pastoral care, often in rural or underserved regions. Missions bring the Sacraments, catechesis, and outreach to communities, helping them to grow toward becoming vibrant Parishes.

Saints of the Week

St. Polycarp (c. 69–155 AD) was a prominent early Christian leader, Bishop of Smyrna (modern-day Izmir, Turkey), and one of the three chief Apostolic Fathers. He is revered for his direct connection to the original disciples, having been a student of St. John the Apostle.

St. Gregory of Narek (c. 950–1003) was a 10th-century Armenian monk, poet, and mystical theologian. He is widely considered the most significant literary and theological figure in Armenian history. In 2015, Pope Francis declared him a Doctor of the Church, making him the first Armenian to receive this title.

The St. Charles Funeral Ministry is seeking additional volunteers—especially men—to assist at funeral Masses and burials. The role takes about an hour per funeral and includes handing out programs and helping on the altar. For more information or to volunteer, contact Gwen Bates at (603) 305-5015 or GWENB@STCBC.ORG.
