MONTH OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD OF JESUS

MES DE LA PRECIOSISIMA
SANGRE DE CRISTO

In Christian theology and teachings, the shed blood of Jesus is foundational to salvation, representing the ultimate sacrifice for humanity. It is primarily understood to provide believers with seven distinct spiritual benefits:

- 1. Forgiveness: The shedding of blood was required for the remission of sins (Hebrews 9:22), and Jesus' sacrifice provides complete pardon.
- 2. Cleansing: The blood purifies the believer's conscience and cleanses them from all unrighteousness.
- 3. Redemption: Believers are bought back from the kingdom of darkness and transferred into the kingdom of God.
- 4. Justification: Believers are declared righteous, just as if they had never sinned.
- 5. Sanctification: The blood sets believers apart for a holy calling and a life dedicated to God.
- 6. Peace: It brings reconciliation with God, replacing anxiety with inner peace.
- 7. Access to the Throne: It removes the barrier to the Holy of Holies, granting believers confident and direct access to God in prayer.

Saints of the Week

Saint Apollinaris

According to tradition, Saint Peter sent Saint Apollinaris to Ravenna, Italy, as its first bishop. His preaching of the Good News was so successful that the pagans there beat him and drove him from the city. He returned, however, and was exiled a second time. After preaching in the area surrounding Ravenna, he entered the city again. After being cruelly tortured, he was put on a ship heading to Greece. Pagans there caused him to be expelled to Italy, where he went to Ravenna for a fourth time. He died from wounds received during a savage beating at Classis, a suburb of Ravenna.

Saint Mary Magdalene followed Jesus, part of a semi-permanent entourage, who served Christ and His disciples. She proved she was among those who loved Him most when she stood at the foot of the Cross on Mount Calvary together with Mary, His Mother, and the disciple, St. John. She did not deny him or run away in fear as the other disciples did, but remained close to Him every moment, up to and including the Crucifixion. Mary Magdalene is the first among the women following Jesus to proclaim Him as having overcome death, the first to see the Risen Christ, and was named the "Apostle to the Apostles," by St. Augustine in the 4th century.

Saint Charbel Makhluf

At the age of 23, he left home to enter the Monastery of Our Lady of Mayfouq. After 16 years of community monastic life, he received permission to move to the nearby Hermitage of Saints Peter and Paul and spent his final 23 years there in complete solitude, fasting rigorously and regularly spending hours in Eucharistic Adoration. For 45 days after his burial, a mysterious bright light emanated from his gravesite. When exhumed, his body was found completely incorrupt, soft, and flexible, exuding a blood-and-sweat-like fluid for decades. While he lived in hidden obscurity, over 30,000 miracles have been attributed to his intercession since his death. His miraculous reputation regularly draws Christians, Muslims, and Druze alike to his tomb at the Monastery of St. Maron in Annaya, Lebanon to pray for peace and healing. He was beatified in 1965 and canonized a saint by Pope Paul VI on October 9, 1977.

Saint Lawrence

was born on July 22, 1559. In addition to a thorough knowledge of his native Italian, he had complete reading and speaking abilities in Latin, Hebrew, Greek, German, Bohemian, Spanish, and French. This enabled him to be able to study the Bible in its original texts. He entered the Capuchin Franciscan Order in Venice (the same order as our new Bishop, Emilio) at the age of 16 and was ordained a priest at 23. He was elected minister general of the Capuchins in 1602. Lawrence was later appointed papal emissary and peacemaker which took him to a number of countries. He died on his birthday at the age of 60 in 1619.

Saint Bridget

(c. 1303 – July 23, 1373), was a prominent medieval mystic, noblewoman, mother, and founder of the Bridgettines religious order. At age 10, she experienced a profound vision of Christ on the cross suffering from His Good Friday wounds. When she asked who had hurt Him, Jesus replied, "Those who despise me and refuse my love for them". This encounter deeply defined her lifelong devotion to the Passion of Christ. Following her husband's death in 1344, Bridget embraced a rigorous life of penance and prayer. She received a divine command to form the Bridgettines Order. Her unique model featured joint monasteries where cloistered monks and nuns lived separately but worshiped together under an abbess. She was canonized in 1391 by Pope Boniface IX.

Saint James the Apostle

(also known as James the Great) was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus. A fisherman by trade, he and his brother John were called by Jesus to be among His first disciples. He is one of the most prominent figures in the Gospels, recognized for his fiery faith. Along with Peter and John, James was part of an intimate inner circle of disciples. He was uniquely present for pivotal moments in Jesus' life, including the Transfiguration, the raising of Jairus's daughter, and the agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. James is the first apostle to be martyred. He was beheaded in Jerusalem around 44 AD by the sword under the orders of King Herod.

In the Womb with Jesus - Week 17

Jesus first heard the sound of His mother's heartbeat today. Its steady drumming is a comfort to Him. He also saw His first flickers of brightness when His mother stood in the sunshine. The Light of the world has seen His first rays of sunlight.

Jesus of the Womb, hear our prayers!

CATHOLIC VIRTUES

In the early Church, we read in the Acts of the Apostles, "All who believed were together and had all things in common; and they sold their possessions and goods and distributed them to all, as any had need." (Acts 2:44-45) This doesn't mean we are obligated to sell our homes and cars, move in with our fellow parishioners and split the water bill. But it certainly does describe the spirit with which we must live as Christians — and it is a generous spirit, a spirit of self-denial, a spirit that prioritizes the welfare of our brothers and sisters as it does our own. Generosity is a fruit of the Holy Spirit, cultivated in our hearts by a closeness to the sacraments and a persistence in prayer.

VIRTUDES CATÓLICAS

En la Iglesia primitiva, leemos en los Hechos de los Apóstoles: «Todos los creyentes estaban juntos y tenían todo en común; vendían sus posesiones y bienes y los repartían entre todos, según la necesidad de cada uno» (Hechos 2:44-45). Esto no significa que estemos obligados a vender nuestras casas y autos, mudarnos con nuestros hermanos de la parroquia y dividir la factura del agua. Pero sí describe el espíritu con el que debemos vivir como cristianos - un espíritu generoso, un espíritu de abnegación, un espíritu que prioriza el bienestar de nuestros hermanos y hermanas tanto como el nuestro. La generosidad es fruto del Espíritu Santo, cultivado en nuestros corazones mediante la cercanía a los sacramentos y la perseverancia en la oración.

Bishop Emilio, Our New Shepherd

Bringing Sunday Mass to the Homebound, Your Gift Makes It Possible!

To reach as many of the faithful as possible, the Diocese of Venice Department of Communications televises Sunday Catholic Masses that are hosted at various Parishes across the Diocese of Venice.

The entire process involves a Parish Priest, planning, a production crew, Parishioners, and, of course, paid airtime. This televised Mass allows the homebound, elderly, hospitalized, incarcerated, and those unable to attend Mass at a local Parish, the opportunity to view and pray along with the Mass.

Your gift to the Catholic Faith Appeal supports this important ministry.

Your support of the Catholic Faith Appeal strengthens every part of our Diocesan mission.

Memorial Garden. We pray for those mourning the loss of loved evil overcome; only in his passion does our mortal weariness find consolation and redemption. In slavery, Christ is liberation. Amid the scourge of war, Christ is hope. In the hour of sin, Christ is forgiveness.
